Ropewalk Outing.

The employees of the Ropewalk and their friends had a most enjoyable outing at the Octagon yesterday. A party of 150 left by a special train at 11 a.m. and in the usual time detrained at the Octagon to enjoy the fresh country air and balmy breezes. At 1 p.m. Manager Breen served a good dinner which was heartily dising the morning and afternoon. These took the form of races, football and dancing. By the six o'clock train another contingent of guests arrived this recreation was resumed and kept up until the whistle of the train in the early morning summoned the evening. At 7.30 Peter Manning, gray, ficelle and ecru.

BRANTFORD, Ont., Aug. 17-A despatch to the Expositor this afternoon says:-A terrible tragedy was enacthere, some time during the night, sive mission. when Mrs. Thos. Pettigrew, aged about 40 years, strangled her two A Germ-laden children, a boy and a girl, aged 12 and 0 years, respectively, and then hanged herself. The crime was not discovered until nine o'clock this morning, and the husband, who is a carpenter, has been working out of the village for a few days, had only returned. Mrs. Pettigrew has been in poor health for some time, and it is evident that she was temporarily insane. No inquest will be held.

Doesn't Want Jailbirds to Fish.

U. S. Circuit Judge D. P. Dyer, last week, sentenced a Federal prisoner in St. Louis, Mo., to six months in jail or forgery, but added:

"I want a few days time to deterine what jail I will send the prisonto, I don't want him to go fishing. have been told that prisoners sent Montgomery City were permitted o go and fish all day and return to jail at night."
