A Worthy Association

There is an association of men in Newfoundland whose worth has been little recognized by those who do not come into immediate contact with them. Day in, and day out, no matter under what weather conditions they journey to and fro throughout the coasts in sun or rain, in fair or foul, in fog or drift, snow or blizzard. By land and sea, by steamer and sail, by motor and dory, ceaselessly calling here and there and bringing their clients more closely in touch with the everyday business affairs of the capital. What is this Association and what manner of men comprise it? They have been, not inappropriately, styled "the Missionaries of Commerce," but as that title, which, by the way is real, may not convey much to the general reader, let us hasten to give the complete answer to the question we have asked, and to state for the information of all and sundry that its official title is the Commercial Travelers Association of Newfoundland known to initiates by the letters C.T.A.N. letters that convey a great deal more than the mere speaking, writing or printing of them. To the Commercial Community whether North, East, South or West in the divisional sections of the island the members of this association are well known, and they are ever welcome to the offices and shops of the business people. Whether they book an order or not the C.T.'s are always cheerful, and for that reason are hailed with delight by the outport merchants. Usually they have the very latest news, and are never backward in imparting it. They also have the very latest market advices and price quotations on all the lines they carry and never hesitate in offering the best information at their disposal. Thus is the outport trader kept in touch with not alone local but foreign rates and quotations. The "trade missionaries" are never too important to render first aid to commerce, and by the relations of the outports and St. John's have been drawn closer together, the credit must be given the Commercial Travelers Association. Each and all of them are men who have specialized in the lines which they carry. They have grown up, as it were, with the firms employing them. Their peregrinations carry them all over the island and no settlement is considered too small or insignificant for them to visit. They are the engines of the trade. Or if you like it better the links which form the chain binding together the Commercial interests of the Capital and the outports. As a body of men they form a Union which is being daily strengthened numerically and influentially. As individuals they are second to none in knowledge of trade conditions. In brief they are indispensable to the future welfare of Newfoundland, and with this all too brief tribute to them and their sterling abilities, may we ask them to accept the best wishes of the Evening Telegram for their continued success and prosperity as an Association and as citizens of the "terra-aqua" as citizens of the dearest land on earth—Terra Nova.

Inter-Club Billiards.

CITY CLUB WIN TWO GAMES OUT OF THREE.

The City Club won two out of the three games played in the Inter-Club Billiard Tournament yesterday afternoon and last night. They now have a small lead in the second round. In the first game between J. Crawford (Masonic) and S. J. Foote (City), the latter won by 42 points. The score was Foote 250, Crawford 208.

The breaks were:—
Crawford—12, 13, 19, 10, 11, 12.
Foote—10, 17, 13, 17, 13, 15, 11, 10.
In the evening A. Greaves (Masonic) and A. Hayward (City) were the opposing players in the first game. This was quite a good game. The players tied at 230 but Hayward finished up 20 points ahead.

The breaks were:—
Greaves—17, 12, 11, 25, 11, 12, 14.
Hayward—11, 11, 14, 19, 11, 17.
In the final game for the evening, W. Rodger (Masonic) defeated J. A. W. McNelly (City) by 52 points. Rodger led his opponent from the beginning.

The breaks were:—
Rodger—10, 14, 15, 11, 10, 10, 16, 12, 14, 10, 19.
McNelly—11, 11, 19, 13, 13, 19.
To-night, the last two games will be played, A. Williams (City) meeting G. Phillips (Masonic) and C. F. Taylor (City) playing W. J. Martin (Masonic). The total lead by the Masons is 917 points.

St. John's Octette Concert Thursday Night.

The success of this concert is now assured, to judge from the enthusiasm displayed by the music loving public. The members of the Octette have been hard at it, practicing every night. Most of the concert pieces are new and will be rendered in such a way as to please the most critical taste. The conductor and members of this little male voice choir are deserving of every encouragement in their endeavor to improve the standard of concerted singing. There are still a few tickets left at Mr. F. V. Chesman's, Water Street.

Wayagamack.

A letter appeared in the Advocate last evening quoting the Wayagamack Pulp Co. in support of the Humber Proposition. According to the Stock Market reports this seems to be an unfortunate example, as we notice that the $100 shares of this Company in 1921, declined from $89 to $36, involving a loss of $2,650,000. If the Humber Proposition turned out the same way, Nfld. would be in a nice mess if the Bonds are guaranteed—E.D.T.

McMurdo's Store News.

Sandent Tooth Paste is a fine tooth paste for general use, and equal in quality to many more expensive brands. Price 30c. a tube.

Convenors Appointed.

The following have been appointed convenors of the various committees formed in connection with St. Andrew's Society.
House Committee—D. McIntosh.
Social Committee—D. McIntosh.
Billiards—E. E. James.
Cards—W. B. Badie.
Sick Committee—D. Johnston.
Mr. L. Calvert is Secretary of the Social Committee.
A motor driven sled, the first of its kind here, was seen on Water Street to-day. The machine which is owned by Mr. Howard Reid had, besides the driver, four passengers on board. Going along the street, which is not in the best of condition, a fairly good speed was made. The machine is propelled by paddles or blades, which grip the surface over which it travels.

Personal.

Mr. Claude Noonan was a passenger to St. John's by the Sapper from Canada.

Mr. T. J. Kennedy, Marina Superintendent of the Purcell Wilby Co., who has been ill for some time past, is now convalescent and will be able to resume his duties in a few days.

Mr. John Carroll, late of the S.S. Coban, and son of Capt. Wm. Carroll, has joined as Second Mate, the S.S. Canadian Constructor, a ten thousand ton ship going to Australia from St. John, N.B.

CABMAN FINED.—For driving without lights, a cabman was fined $1, in the Magistrate's Court this morning.

War Memorial Meeting.

COLONEL NANGLE OFFERS SERVICES.—THE GOVERNMENT WILL ERECT NORMAL SCHOOL AS NATIONAL MEMORIAL.

Colonel Nangle offered his services to the War Memorial Executive at their meeting held yesterday, and was authorized to take what steps he saw fit to add to the funds at the disposal of the Committee. The Prime Minister, who was present, said that the Government had put aside $100,000 for the erection of a Normal School as a National Memorial. This would not conflict in any way with the present scheme for the erection of a Citizens' Memorial.

$20,000 IN SIGHT.

The meeting was a large and representative one, and was presided over by Mr. R. G. Rendell. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Hon. Secretary, Mr. P. E. Outerbridge, and after they were adopted, the Chairman outlined the progress made since the Committee's inception. He said that there was nearly $15,000 in the Bank, and that $20,000 was in sight. This amount was certainly not sufficient to permit the erection of a memorial which would adequately express the gratitude of the people of Newfoundland to those who had paid the Supreme Sacrifice on their behalf.

Mr. Rendell announced that Colonel (Padre) Nangle had offered his services to the Executive, and called upon him to address the meeting. Colonel Nangle offered some mild criticism of the methods employed in obtaining money and offered some suggestions which resulted in the passing of a motion to give him a free hand in connection with an attempt to add to the funds of the Committee. A tribute to Colonel Nangle's splendid work in connection with the War Graves Commission was paid by Dr. Robinson.

THE LADIES' COMMITTEE.

Lady Crosbie reported on behalf of the Ladies' Committee, that $2,300 had been collected. This is a very substantial amount and reflects credit on the energetic efforts of the ladies of the Committee. The question of outport subscriptions was discussed and will be left in the hands of the Committee.

THE NATIONAL MEMORIAL.

In reference to the matter of the erection of an educational building as a War Memorial the Prime Minister said that the idea had not originated with the Government, but with the Newfoundland Patriotic Association, now disbanded. A sub-committee had been appointed by the Patriotic Association to consider the matter of a War Memorial. The various Superintendents of Education and the committee recommended an educational building as a memorial. He believed it was also thought that in addition to the building itself there would be some specific piece of statuary identified with the building or with the grounds upon which the building would be erected, but that the matter was not proceeded with. The present Administration decided, shortly after the assumption of office in the autumn of 1919 that, so far as the Colony was concerned, there should be a War Memorial, and decided upon the erection of a Normal School as a Memorial of the greatest practical utility. The amount stated and earmarked by the Legislature for that purpose was the sum of $100,000, which the Government felt was the approximate amount which the finances of the Colony would justify for the erection of the building. The matter came before the Legislature in the session of 1920, and it was publicly announced that that appropriation of funds for a Normal School represented the Newfoundland War Memorial, so far as the erection of a Memorial by the Government was concerned.

APPROACHED BY COMMITTEE.

The Prime Minister said he had been approached by a Committee of the Patriotic Association, who offered to cooperate with the Government in the matter of the preparation of plans and was asked whether it was not possible to largely increase the vote of $100,000, with a view to carrying out a very much more ambitious scheme. The Committee thought it would be possible for them to raise a very substantial sum of money, and possibly cooperate with the Government in the construction of the building, or in the alternative for some special statuary. The Prime Minister had informed the committee that, while the Government might be prepared to erect a building which would be slightly more costly than $100,000, yet the cost of erection would not be increased to any substantial extent over that figure. He said he told them that if they were making any arrangements for the raising of any substantial sum of money the Government would be glad to cooperate with them in the preparation of plans for the building, but that it would be necessary for the Committee to give some definite guarantee as to the amount of money which they proposed to provide; otherwise the Government might find that it had cooperated with the committee in preparing elaborate plans and that ultimately the Government would be called upon to pay a bill far in excess of the $100,000 specified. The committee, however, did not feel that any very substantial amount of money would be secured by them, with the result that the Government placed the matter in the hands of architects. The matter was carefully studied. Plans were secured by the Minister of Education from various parts of the world, and ultimately Mr. Carman Paine, a Newfoundland boy who is the architect working with Messrs. Darling and Pearson in charge of the New Parliament Building at Ottawa, was selected, and a contract has been entered into with him in connection with the matter.

THE CITIZENS' MEMORIAL.

The Government proposes to go ahead with its program of the erection of an educational building as a War Memorial, erected and maintained by the Government on behalf of the people of Newfoundland. The educational building will be used for the purpose of a Normal School, and the program would be entirely separate and distinct from any program undertaken by the Committee. That was a committee of citizens, who as citizens had undertaken the work of securing funds for the erection of a memorial to the Newfoundlanders who gave their lives in the great war.

He understood it was not to be a memorial of utilitarian character, but rather some piece of the statuary similar to War Memorials erected in other parts of the world. It was a committee of citizens who had voluntarily bound themselves together to carry out this undertaking, and, as a citizen he would be happy to do anything in his power, if he were permitted, to help towards that program, but it must be understood that this program was not a Government program, that it had no connection whatever with any Government program for the erection of a War Memorial in the form of an Educational Building, that this Memorial was rather one which had associated with it the personal touch and individual work of all those who as citizens identified themselves with the work.

The tendency of the times had been to call upon the Government too much in connection with matters which should rest upon the shoulders of the citizens as individuals. He thought that the organization could be very much more successful by devoting their efforts as citizens bound together for the special work of the erection of the War Memorial, the cost of which would be borne by the citizens as such.

The Political Situation.

HOUSE MAY NOT MEET UNTIL MARCH.

It is generally believed that the House of Assembly will not meet for the dispatch of business until the first Wednesday in March. The Prime Minister admitted yesterday that it would be further prorogued from Feb. 8th. The Humber proposition is the chief topic of conversation at present and has attracted considerable opposition to the principle of the guarantee. There is no truth, however, in the report that the project has been dropped by the Government. It is rumored that the matter is receiving the further consideration of the Executive to-day. So far, the Tariff Revision Committee has not been appointed. This matter will be understood, receive attention shortly.

No Flying on Holidays.

AEROPLANE PARTS ARRIVE.

No flying on holidays and Sundays is the decision of Major Cotton. This decision is a very wise one, as the large crowd which always assembles on the airfield on holidays when the machine is going up are in great danger themselves and are a hindrance to the aviators. The parts for the Westland machine have arrived in town and will be transhipped to Botwood immediately. Major Cotton and Captain Bennett may follow shortly to superintend the overhauling of the plane. Both the Marysville and the Westland will be used in aerial reconnaissances of the icefields.

Canadian Sapper Arrives

S.S. Canadian Sapper reached port at 11 a.m. from Halifax via Aquatone, where the ship was compelled to harbor for some time owing to ice conditions. The steamer brought one passenger and a part freight. It is expected that the Sapper will get away early on Monday for St. John, N.B., and make close connection with the S.S. Canadian Logger, sailing on February 10th for Barbados, Trinidad and Demerara.

Schooner Reported.

A three masted schooner was reported from Cape Race this morning, coming East. At one p.m. the vessel was crossing Petty Harbor Bay, but she was too far distant for Cape Spear to identify her. The schooner was seen this afternoon to tow her to port, if necessary.

Prospero Jammed Again

THREE PASSENGERS STILL ON BOARD.

The last message received from S.S. Prospero stated that the ship was only a half mile from open water but that a northwest wind was blowing and the ice was closing in. Earlier messages stated that the ship was getting clear of the ice. Three passengers are still on board. They are Messrs. E. Coyle, the Herring Inspector; Templeman and Knight. The passengers who left the ship and walked to Lewisporte had a very hard time, as the journey had to be accomplished over broken ice. All were successful in getting to Lewisporte, but are not anxious to have to repeat the walk at any time.
