ANNABEL OR THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXV. TAKEN CAPTIVE.

"Answer me this question, Mister Weston," he said. "Is it for the interest of any one in England that your business in coming to America should miscarry?"
"Wery much for the interest of Bernard Hayes, I should say," was the impulsive exclamation of Jim Potts.
Philip started, and regarded Jim with something like a look of frightened intelligence. Their former suspicions of Hayes were revived in his mind in a moment, and he was forced not only to corroborate Jim's assertion, but to add that in his opinion the lawyer was capable of resorting to unscrupulous methods to prevent the receipt of that information which Jerry had it in his power to give regarding the marriage of Annabel's parents.
"That's the secret o' the whole business," exclaimed Steve, confidently. "The lawyer and Yorke are in league together, and I could wager a score o' beaver skins that shaggy bear has been sent out from England for the very purpose of getting Jerry shipped off."

BREAKFAST.—ERIE'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which will save us many heavy doctors' bills."—Civil Service Gazette.

THE Genuine Thing!

10 per cent. off for Cash

As Mr. STEWART is leaving for the British and Continental Markets in July, he has determined to reduce his large stock of Dry Goods and Clothing by $20,000 this month. To effect this he has resolved to allow a discount of 10 per cent. on all purchases of $1 and upwards. So rare a chance of securing cheap goods seldom occurring, the public should avail themselves of making and saving money. Quotations of prices being no real criterion of cheapness, an inspection of goods is solicited.
