Guelph Evening Mercury

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 18, 1873

Town and County News.

Ferly Harriston people gave Mr. T. W.
Bowje a surprise party the other evening.

Harriston grain buyers and others are complaining of the want of cars on the W. G. & B.

A LITTLE BOY who was on a visit to Elora, says it is a splendid ride, as you can always get a pig to ride round upon.

MAGAZINES.—Boy Bells, Young Ladies' Journal, Family Herald, and the other Old Country magazines to-night at Anderson's.

COAL OIL is selling for 39 cents per gallon in Guelph. We can't promise that the price will be any lower, so bring in your cans and get them filled at once.

ORANGETVILLE is well taxed. The following sums are required: County Rate, $200; Schools, $2,752.23; Village, $800; Railway, $900; Tramway, $70—Total, $5,122; for which a rate of 26 1/2 mills in the dollar has been levied. This is about the same as was levied last year.

TWELVE THOUSAND.—We learn that the number of registered letters passing through the Guelph Post Office from Jan. 1st last to the present date is no less than 12,000. During the same period 11,990 registered letters have passed through the office in the course of transmission. This may be taken as an indication of brisk business.

THE DEATH OF MR. HASSAN.—The Berlin Telegraph gives a statement made by Mr. John Anderson, who has just received the unfortunate John Hassan was killed, to the effect that there was a very high wind blowing at the time of the accident, and he thought it probable that the deceased might have been blown off the top of the train.

Two Elora omnibuses had a collision on Monday while returning from the station, going down the hill towards the river. Bain's turned from the middle of the road and was wheeling round for the front door of the hotel, when Allan's bus ran into it, smashing the rear front wheel and breaking the axle at the opposite side.

AN EPISODE OF FIDELITY.—Bret Harte has issued a new book bearing this title, and we have received a copy from Mr. John Anderson, who has just received a supply. The well-known name of Bret Harte will be sufficient to ensure popularity for this new book. We shall give a longer notice as soon as we have had time to read it.

NEW TEMPERANCE LODGE IN HARRISTON.
—A new Temple, in connection with the Independent Order of Good Templars, has been instituted in the Village of Harriston. The name of the new lodge is "Temperance Star." The number of charter-members initiated was twenty-six, while quite a number promised to unite before long.

CARICATURE.—Mr. W. J. Little, baker, Wynham-street, has just completed a very fine twenty-five dollar bride-cake, and is a really a masterpiece of art.
A handsome wreath of orange-blossoms and other flowers surmounts the cake, which is evidently the work of an artistic eye and hand. Mr. Little is extending his business in the direction of fancy baking and confectionery, as will be seen by his advertisement.

ACCIDENT.—One day last week James McCounchie, junior, Con. C., township of Minto, was assisting his father in clearing up a fallow. While cutting a brand in two the axe came in contact with a log, and striking on the foot by the instep made a severe gash, which ran the length of the foot. The cut is very slowly mending, and it will be some time before he is able to go about again.

FALL WREATH.—The Tribune says that an unusual quantity of fall wheat has been sown in the neighborhood of Harriston this fall, and never looked more promising. The farmers appear to have learned the secret that early sowing of this crop is necessary. The result is that it is now up, and covering the ground nicely. By winter, it will have sufficient top to cover the roots, and preserve it from the frost. In fact, should the present fine weather continue, some of our farmers will have to pasture their sheep and calves on it to keep it down.

THE ILLUSTRATED NEWS for October 18 has a well-executed portrait of Mr. Joseph Arch. The face is a manly and pleasant one to look on, with signs of a determined will in the firm lips and steady eyes.
The illustrations in this number are a great improvement on the earlier efforts of this periodical, and some of them would do no discredit to the old-country namesake of the Illustrated News. Among these are "Don Carlos and his Staff," "Under den Linden" and "Scenery in the Niagara Region."

WINGS.—Few housekeepers appreciate the value of chicken and turkey wings—they use them to dust furniture and brush up the hearth; but for washing windows they are of untold worth. There is nothing that equals them: they clean the corners out easily, and leave no film upon the glass. Then for spreading paste on walls and paper, there is no invention that will do the work half as well. Try them once, and there will be no necessity of telling people to be sure and save all the wings.

PLoughing MATCH.—The North Wellington ploughing match in connection with the Agricultural Society will be held on the farm of Mr. David Nicholson, Lot number 2 on the 3rd Con. Minto, about two miles from Tevendale, on Friday, October 24th, when the following prizes will be awarded: Men's class, over 18 years of age, 1st prize $7, 2nd $6, 3rd $5, 4th $5, 5th $3. Boys' Class, 18 years and under, 1st prize $7, 2nd $6, 3rd $5, 4th $5, 5th $3. The Directors have made their best endeavours to get a good field, and as central to the greatest number as possible.

PARKER CHURCH.—A tea meeting was held in the Parker W. M. Church last Monday evening, in every respect a success. Through the liberality of Mr.

Robt. McKim, of T. P. for Norwich, Winnington, a magnificent collation was spread. The neat little church was crowded. Rev. Mr. Cookman, Mr. Anderson, Registrar of the North Riding, and Rev. Mr. Warren, of Elora, were the speakers. The latter delivered a characteristic temperance talk, which was cheered to the echo by Rev. B. J. Forman, the Superintendent of the Circuit, occupied the chair, and enlivened the meeting with characteristic remarks from time to time.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Elora News says:
"It is our painful duty this week to chronicle the sudden death of Mr. James Allan, of the Dalby House. On Saturday he complained of being somewhat indisposed, when medical assistance was at once procured. Sunday, and up to the time of his death on Tuesday evening at about 5 o'clock, he was in an unconscious state; and from the first, little hopes were entertained of his recovery. During the time he has been here, he has ever displayed a kind, genial and obliging disposition; and his sudden demise has caused quite a gloom over the community.
He leaves a widow and six children to mourn his loss. The funeral was attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends and relatives. Mr. Allan, belonging to the fraternity, was buried with Masonic honors."

STILL THEY GO.—The farms of Plitkington are frequently changing hands, not from lack of quality in the land or the general prosperity of the inhabitants, but rather from a love of change. Mr.
John Smith was an old and prosperous settler, but he went to Manitoba; Mr. D.
Lillies is following him to the same Province; sometime since Mr. J. L. Kelly sold his farm and went to Iowa, and his then neighbor, Mr. Adam Simpson, after looking round him for twelve months and travelling far east and west, has decided to follow his old friend to that State, having purchased a farm in the same neighborhood. We also understand that Mr. W.
Batters has sold his farm to Mr. T.
Pritchard, whilst his brother sold twelve months ago his to Mr. James Crook-shanks.—Elora Observer.

WILL HE GET THROUGH?—We are this week introduced by Grip's cartoon into a circus, in which statesmen are shown as acting their parts in the guise of clowns and acrobats. The incident depicted is that frequent one in a circus—an erect bare-back rider taking leaps through hoop hoops covered with tissue paper.
The rider is of course Sir John A., and his steed the old lack "Pacific Scandal." John A. is capably drawn, and the expression of his face is a study. Behind him stands Lord Dufferin, holding a hoop labelled "August 13" through which the rider has already leaped. Behind him stands Mackenzie, in the dress of a clown, with finger to nose, holding up a very small hoop, labelled "October 23"; and John A. is just gathering himself together for the desperate leap.
In front, as ringmaster, is George Brown, with high stiff collar; and behind are various prominent politicians as spectators. Hutcheon, of the Mail, is asking Blake "What's the horse worth?" and E. B. Wood is sitting in a characteristic attitude on a bench, with elbow on knee and pipe in hand. Owing to a clumsiness in the design, rather unusual for Grip's art, the cartoon requires a little explanation before its meaning becomes manifest; and the horse is a sorry beast; but the faces are excellent. We are indebted to Mr. John Anderson for a copy in advance of our own.

SNEEP WORKING.—A correspondent writes to the Fergus News Letter, stating his belief that the recent depredations amongst sheep in West Guelph were mainly caused by wolves, not dogs.
He says:—The killing first began near the townline between Luther and Garrafrax, where wolves are now heard howling nearly every night, and their tracks visible everywhere through swamps in that locality, and came farther down into the older settlements just as the sheep were housed and kept out of their way.
On the upper ends of the 5th, 6th and 7th Concessions a great many sheep were killed before any were collected for the Fergus and Douglas road. The swamp fires the past dry seasons have driven the deer away, from which the wolves drew their former supplies. Within a radius of two or two and a half miles I will enumerate some of those who have lost in this way, within two years: John Strang, George Sprues, Robert Sewart, John Allison, J. J. Dobbin, Geo.
Robertson, Cyrus Sergeant, Hall Loree, Wm. Douglas, R. J. Black, David Black, John Moffatt, Wm. Kyle, Henry Hamill, John Felker, David Kyle, John Sergeant, Wm. Felker, David Ferrier, Joseph Eve-leigh and James Eveleigh. Every one of eight of these names will represent a loss of $100, and an equal area between where they live and Luther will give as great if not greater loss. Although we have far too many dogs, yet I could furnish incontestable evidence that the greater part, if not all, of these depredations have been committed by wolves.

SOCIAL AT WINTERBOURNE.—On Friday evening last a neoteric social was held in the old Free Church building at Winter-bourne, which was well attended and passed off in a pleasant and enjoyable manner. It was got up by the young ladies connected with the Wesleyan Methodist Church at that place, who were desirous of raising funds wherewith to make some internal improvements in their church, and as their efforts were heartily supported by members of sister congregations, the result was highly gratifying. Upwards of $20 was realized.
Addresses, dialogues, music and refreshments took place in rapid succession until 10 o'clock, when the company dispersed well pleased with the evening's proceedings.

The creditors of Mr. H. B. Fairfield, proprietor of an extensive saloon and restaurant on King street, Toronto, being somewhat apprehensive as to the safety of their claims, owing to the prolonged absence of the landlord from home, placed the Sheriff in possession of the premises on Monday last. With the exception of a few perishable edibles, and the small amount of liquor necessary to the daily demands of a first-class saloon, the creditors found little or nothing. The exact amount of liabilities is not known, but is variously stated at from $30,000 to over $40,000. If this failure has the effect of closing the premises on Colborne street, in the rear, which never ought to have been licensed, the public will have small cause for regret at anything that has happened.—Monday Times.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Incendiaries Arrested.

Manchester, N.H., Oct. 18.—Henry Tyarral, proprietor of Union Avenue House, at Goffstown, Aaron Hackett and Joseph Cheney, two French Canadians, were arrested yesterday, charged with setting fire to Taggart's buildings which occasioned a loss of seventeen valuable horses. The prisoners were bound over in $5,000 each for a further hearing.

Sailor Drowned.
(Special despatch to the Evening Mercury.) Port Colborne, Oct. 18.—A sailor named Richard Smith, an Englishman on the Schooner "James Norris," while coming into this harbour this morning was knocked overboard and drowned. The schooner "F. D. Barker" was got off last night and is now in the harbor—lightened of over eleven thousand bushels of dry wheat; the balance of cargo, nine thousand bushels, is damaged.

TO THE SKY-LARK.
Bright minstrel bird, through countless Poets have sung thy praise And love-it eyes suffused with tears While listening to thy lays.
Up, cheering heaven-ward thou dost, Mid ether pure to roam;
Of all the swift-winged tribe the highest Above thy lofty home.
Thy silvery notes of joy we hail From spheres we may not scan;
What rock at them of care-wrought veil This shrouds the heart of man!
Enough that thou dost be lent Sweet song and daily food, By hand unseen, omnipotent, Yet infinitely good.
Were motion modelled by the will,
Swiftly we'd follow thee, Vain with our gaze and listen till Thyself we cannot see.
Thou, turning to thy grassy berth, Thou thought to us is given—Who dwells the lowliest on earth Shall highest sing in heaven.

Local and Other Items

Deer are said to be more than usually plentiful this season in the townships around Ottawa.

Mr. W. G. McMullen is amongst those who have applied for rooms at the Russell House, Ottawa.

Ma. A. Hinde, of Oshawa, has bought the Queen's Hotel from Mr. Bookless, and has "taken hold."

The Acadia Powder Mills, situated at Waverly, exploded on Thursday morning. One workman was seriously injured.

John Bowden, who robbed the American Express Company of $10,260 at St.
Catherines on March 5th, has been tried and sentenced to 7 years in the penitentiary.

The corner stone of the Ottawa West Wesleyan Church was laid on the E. G. & B.
Railway, in the presence of a large and fashionable assembly. The church will be a handsome brick structure, to hold 1,000 people.

A child of Mr. J. L. Lawrence, Thames-ville, aged four years, was killed recently by falling with a staircase to which Mr.
Lawrence had hitched his team. From some cause the horses became frightened, and in their attempt to get away pulled down the structure.

"The first Grand Trunk "run off" since the change of gauge, occurred near Belleville last week. One of the new Manchester engines ran off, dragging some cars after it. The cars were badly damaged, but the locomotive fortunately escaped without much injury.

ACCIDENT.—A few nights ago while Mr.
McKenzie, contractor on the E. G. & B.
Railway, was returning home to Minto, it being very dark, the buggy came in contact with a stump, throwing Mr. Mc-Kenzie out, and considerably bruising his face; otherwise he was not much injured.

LIBERAL.—At the last meeting of the Maryboro' Council, it was moved by Mr.
Long, seconded by Mr. Turner, "That Mr. Findlay Booth, of the Province of Manitoba, and late of the Township of Wallace, who has lost both his arms and legs by being frozen on the prairies
