New York, Aug. 8.—President Farrell and Manager Chance, of the Yankees, today put through a deal with Manager Dunn, of the deal with Manager Duni, of the Baltimore International team, whereby the Yankees secure Thirdbaseman Maisel, who has made a great record in the minor

Infielder Ezra Midkiff, and Out-$12,000 cash, were given to Dunn for Maisel, which makes Maisel one of the highest priced players ever purchased by a major league team, as both Daniels and Midkiff valued at something lik $4,000 each.

Ruby K. and Driver Bigelow Are Ruled Off For Work at the Eric Races.

Cleveland, Aug 8. - For the first time this season a driver and horse were expelled today from the National Trotting Association, The judges took this action in regard to Ruby K., the winner of the 2:17 pace, and also in regard to Driver Kreglow, at the Kranwood meet of the Erle circuit. wood meet of the Erle circuit.

The judges decided after the fourth heat that the driver was not trying to win the race, although the horse had won two heats. They replaced him with won two heats. They replaced him with Charlie Jamison, and the horse won the fifth and deciding heat handily. The judges then expelled the horse and driver and awarded Jamison onehalf the purse.

Capt. David Shaw, a well-known horseman, of Cleveland, had obtained an option on the mare and bought her at the conclusion of the race. He will apply for reinstatement of the mare.

McCONNELL BLEW UP.

New York, Aug. 8. - Up to the first half of the eighth inning at the Polo grounds today, the New Yorks looked like winners. The score was 3 to 2 in their favor, but when Shotten opened the eighth with a two-bagger to right field, McConnell began to feel nervous. Balenti's sacrifice put Shotten on third, and the latter tied the score on Pratt's base hit. Then it was that McConnell wavered and handed pass to G. Williams. Manager Chance, convinced that McConnell's case was hopeless, took him out and substituted Ray Fisher. The Vermont boy promptly walked Austin, and with the bases filled, Compton, batting for even, 1 to 2 and 1 to 4, 2; Patience, Johnston, drove a long fly to Cree. 109 (Montour), 6 to 1, 2 to 1 and even, Pratt scoring, and the other runners 2. PHILLIES LAMBASTED CHICAGO. Chicago, Aug. 8. - The Phillies jumped on the Cubs today and the resulting disaster was sad to contemplate from a Cub standpoint. They piled up a total of 15 hits, including three homers, a triple and two doubles. and in the eighth inning every man to 3. Johnson today officially won was at bat twice, while Becker scored two runs in that session. They drove Lavender and Moore to the tall timbers, and made "Lurid" Lou Richie look like a twirler on a back lot. The

A Championship Ball Game in London in 1876

Leture loaned by Hamilton's Book Store, An international baseball match between the Tecumseh Club, of London, and the Mutuals, of Chicago. The game was a professional one, and was played on the diamond on the old Fair Grounds at the corner of Central avenue and Richmond street, on July 15, 1876. No gloves were used in those days, and the spectators instead of sitting and watching the game, stood about the field.

READY FOR A GAME TODAY

Wisconsin Pilcher To Join Team Monday Morning

GOING TO TORONTO.

Owing to the inclement weather the manufacturers' athletic meeting, to have been held in Queen's Park this afternoon, was postponed indefinitely. The modified Marathon race will be run off, however, as most of the contestants are in the city.

BEMIS' FINGER SPLIT.

In the game at Providence yesterday Catcher Harry Bemis had a finger split and will be out of the game for perhaps a couple of weeks. Last night President McCaffery arranged with the Peterboro Canadian League club for the loan of Catcher Irving Trout. who is the property of the Toronto club. Trout will join the Leafs at once.
