HAMS' CLOUTING CIRCUS OUT-CLOUTED BY TECS

Mackey's Homer, With Bases Loaded, Starts Orgy of Seven Runs in Third-Carme n Beaned and Bullard Relieve s Him.

ALBERT'S CLOUTING CIRCUS of the first series made their second appearance of the season over at Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon, and while they staged a "threeing" performance, as far as hits were concerned, they ooked like a one-horse medicine show when it came to making knocks count in as runs, and a lively set-to went to the locals, 13-5.

this third off, sired by Stimpson, Butler and Blake. The big fellow played Schaefer for a bunt, and the local Sheik of Knock was so surprised, apparently, he struck out. Hereupon, Mr. Mackey stepped up and into one on the outside, a four-base knock far over Calbert's head and into the weeds on the banks of Home-Run Creek. Four runs, but it was only the beginning. Tomlin's equilibrium was so badly tilted that he heaved one almost over the grandstand before he walked Malmquest. Boyle got on when Carlin made a bobble. Fedor slammed down a fielder's choice, which cose Boyle at second, and then Carmen came to bat. Tomlin here hurled a fast curve which caught the London southpaw in the back of the hurled a fast curve which caught the London southpaw in the back of the head with a resounding crack, and he sank to the ground unconscious. Buck Boyle rushed in at Tomlin, accusing him of deliberately trying to get the batters gun-shy, and the two teams were in a near riot for a minute.

Carmen Comes To. Carmen Comes 10.

Carmen revived and walked off, but was unable to run, and later it was found that he would be unable to continue hurling. Coogins ran for Carmen, and when Calbert let Stimpson's bounding hit roll on to the signboards, three runs flashed across the plate. Butler struck out to end

Doc Bullard was called in to start the fourth against the Hams, stone cold, and as it takes Doc a couple of frames to get warmed to it normally, the visitors naturally fell to and helped themselves to three runs, Doc filling the bases with two singles and a hit batsman. Malmquest knocked Brantford down Carlin's hard grounder, Kuhn scoring. Tomlin struck out, his secend time, but Stutz whanged out one of his favorite cutters past third, Flint scoring Oakes and Dugray.

After this Buliard twirled along at a steady pace, fast double plays extricating him from trouble in the fifth, sixth and ninth, when two runners were on and none out. In the fifth Dugray scored while the double was being made. In the seventh the Hams got themselves another run, Hunter's double with one gone being exchanged for a run on Kuhn's single Struck Hard Going.

KITCHENER, Ont., July 12.—With four scouts occupying seats in the grandstand Kitchener defeated Brantford in the first game of the second series by 7 to 3, and went to pieces in the second game of the double-header, which was won by the Brantfords by 16 to 1, in a five-inning engagement. Glynn opposed Saladna in the initial game and otpitched the big twirler of the Brants, who is in demand by the big leaguers In the second game. Hixenbaugh started to pitch with a sore arm and was called out in the second. The teams played nine innings, but the London third frame was worth the price of admission alone. Tomlin, a big, shaggy ex-Bison, was hurling, one run having been made off him in the first inning. Three singles started this third off, sired by Stimpson, Butler and Blake. The high fellow played Schaefer for a bunt, and the local Sheik.

Pitcher Earl Brown and Third Baseman Watson were released last night. Watson's failure to hit is given as the reason for his release. The third sacker, however, was popular with the fans, and it wasn't so much failure to hit, as it was failure to place what he hit that made his batting average look bad.

The fans had a gala day with Calbert again yesterday. And with Stutz. The only difference between the two is that Stutz thrives on razzings, and Calmakes errors on that diet.
