

The ADVERTISER'S PICTORIAL PAGE

After a severe illness, Mme. Jeritza is back on the stage where she is proving to be a success in Europe.

Louise Groody, who starred in "Good Morning Dearie," plays in the sand with Marjorie Wood of "Chu Chin Chow" fame.

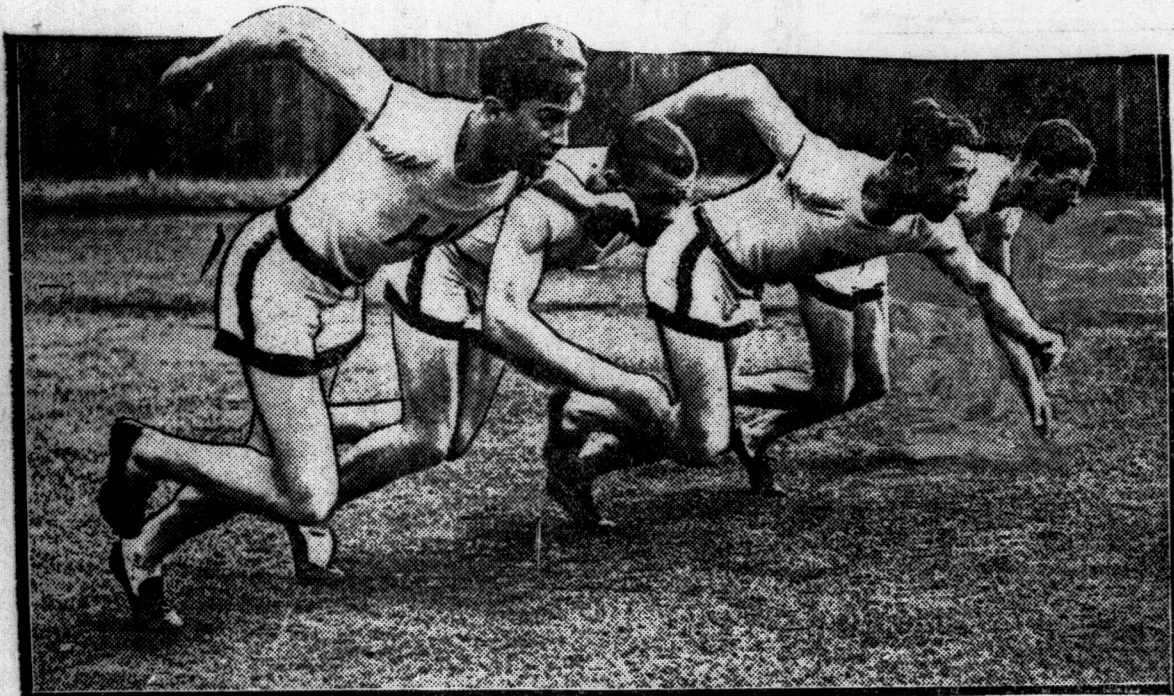

Five hundred contestants in a beauty contest proclaimed their competitor, Miss Mary Ayres, the winner.

The wedding took place recently of Lady Sheelah King-Tenison to Lieut. T. C. Greenway, R. N., at St. Mark's.

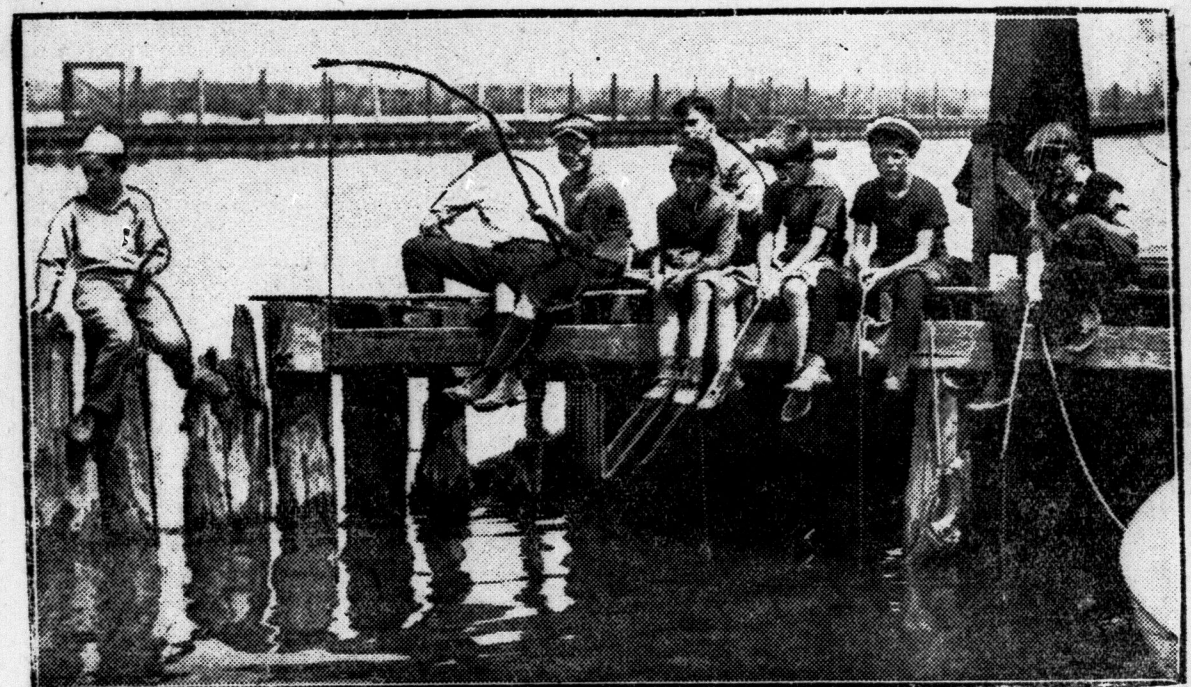

The engagement of Miss Grace Vanderbilt, it is rumored, will soon be announced. She is the daughter of General Cornelius Vanderbilt and the former Grace Wilson.

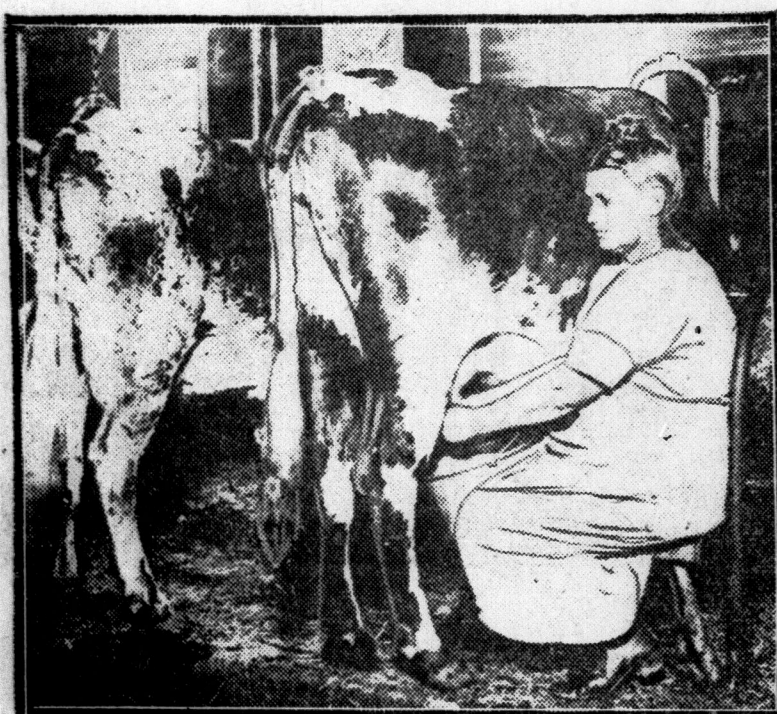

The Yale and Harvard athletes who are to compete with Oxford and Cambridge Universities at the Empire Stadium at Wembley, England, are in the midst of hard training.

Hubert Showitts of California, is seen in costume for her famous gypsy dance. She is a university graduate and is one of the leading ballet dancers of the world.

Gee, ain't you glad school's closed! If this isn't real sport ask the gang that fish from the old wharf.

The wife of the recently elected senator from Minnesota is quite an accomplished milker. She is not so sure that she will like to live in Washington.

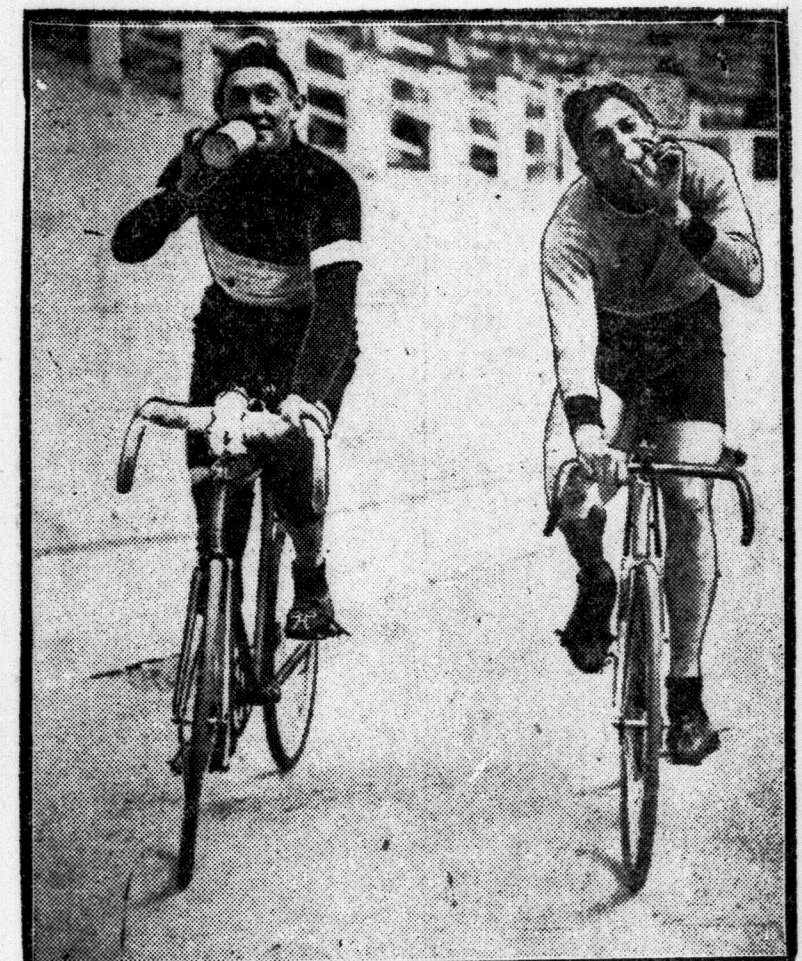

In a race of science against time, Dr. Louis Freedman went through a twenty-six hour ordeal in a government drug test, then rushed to another city to keep a marriage appointment with Miss Bertha Gallup, above.

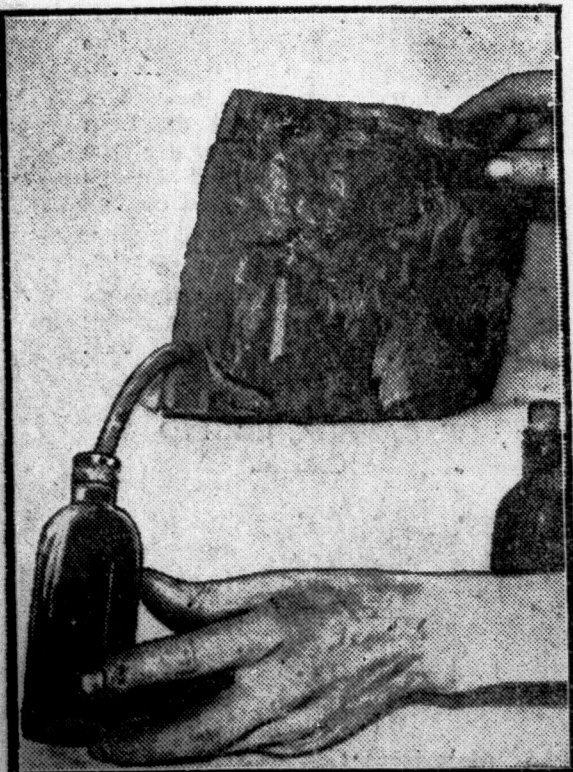

Little Gloria Caruso, daughter of the late Enrico Caruso, world-famed tenor, enjoys herself on the sands of Deauville, France.

Mrs. Frederick Siebold, whose husband has been missing for some time, still has faith that he will soon appear and everything will turn out rosy.

Two competitors in a six-day bicycle race at Olympia take their meals during the contest.

Sailors on liners are being supplied by "boot-leggers" with rum and spirits concealed in imitation coal made of wood, and containing a receptacle in which liquor can be secreted.

Dorothy Manners, prominent actress, has had the custody of her son, Carlos, restored to her by court after she had kidnapped him.

L. L. Carter was scratch man in the air race around Britain for the King's Cup. He is seen starting off from Hendon.

This German aviator did the exceptional when he piloted his airplane over the city of Berlin and effected a successful landing in the streets before the University of Berlin.