ontreal, February 6 .- A trade circular has n issued to the Canadian millers, which is of rest to Americans as well. It says:--"We exceedingly sorry to see that the difficulties ween Canada and Newfoundland over the ery question have brought about a differentax on all Canadian flours entering New ndland. This tax is $1.05 per barrel, while United States flours are admitted on the ner tariff of 30c per barrel. This difference of a barrel against us is simply prohibitory for Cauadian trade. Newfoundland requires ery year 300,000 to 350,000 arrels of flour, and are certain that there will be no difficulty in addian millers securing the bulk of this trade unadian millers securing the bulk of this trade we are placed on equal terms with our American competitors. For the first time in several are the prices of Canadian flours are on a vel with, or a little below those of American illers. We fully rely on your aid in this matter, and suggest that every miller should at nee communicate with the representative of s district in Parliament, and also write to the illers' Association in support of this effort, therwise the share of Newfoundland's spring dets for flour, which certainly belongs to anada, will go to the American millers."
