TWELFTH YEAR.

PARNELL'S RESTING PLACE.

TO SHARE A BOUND HERE WITH MANY OF IRELAND'S POOR.

Thousands Have Already Arrived at Dublin to Attend the Funeral on Sunday. All the Public Houses to be Closed—The Route of the Procession—Parnell's Dying Words.

DUBLIN, Oct. 9.—Messrs. Kenny, Harrington, Richard Power and Dalton paid a visit to Ganey and selected the site for Parnell's grave. It is situated upon an enclosed mound to the left of the mortuary chapel and is a most attractive position. The grave will be dug in the centre of the mound and when completed will be covered over to be conspicuous from all parts of the cemetery. This mound is at present filled with graves of the poor and in many years ago, but has not been used for burial purposes for some 40 years.

Thousands of people are already flocking to Dublin to attend the funeral and an immense crowd is expected to be present on Sunday. The public houses will be closed while the funeral ceremonies are in progress.

The procession will form at Kingstown where the mail boat from Holyhead will land the casket. From Kingstown the procession will march to the Tower. Half a different section headed by bands of music with muffled drums.

The casket containing the remains of Mr. Parnell will be brought from Brighton to London to-morrow morning. There will be no demonstration upon the arrival of the body in the city as Holyhead all the Parnellites members of Parliament will meet on Saturday in time to be present at the funeral when the funeral train arrives.

All the English Parliamentary colleagues of the late member for Cork city will be present at the funeral. Mr. Gladstone will meet the Parnellite members of Parliament and will accompany the body to Ireland.

Ireland Mourns as a Nation.
DUBLIN, Oct. 9.—Ireland as a nation is mourning her dead. The sable emblems of sorrow are already seen in the streets of every town and city. The City Hall is being prepared for the lying-in-state of the body. Parnell will lie in state in the City Hall and it is safe to say that the funeral will be the greatest in the history of Ireland.

Parnell's Dying Words.
LONDON, Oct. 9.—Mr. Gladstone yesterday during Mr. Parnell's delirium, some hours before he died, he talked constantly of Ireland, and asked you to vote for her. In a brief, lucid interval, just before his death, he said—and he was almost his last words—"Let my love be conveyed to my colleagues and the Irish people."

Justin McCarthy's Last Evening.
LONDON, Oct. 9.—Mr. McCarthy's last evening was a most interesting one. He was surrounded by his friends and his countrymen. He was in the most lucid of his mind and he spoke of his country and his people with a fervor that was almost unparalleled.

Mr. Parnell's Condition.
BORDEAUX, N.J., Oct. 9.—Mrs. Parnell, the mother of the late Irish leader, is gravely ill. She has been in bed since the news was received of her son's death. It is feared that the blow has been too great for her and that her mind is unbalanced.

Captain O'Shea Talks.
He Tells What Parnell's Private Opinion Was of Some of His Colleagues.
LONDON, Oct. 9.—During an interview at his Brighton residence to-day Captain O'Shea declines to discuss any personal matter. Regarding political issues he thought the death of Parnell was a disaster to the cause of the Irish Home Rulers. "The question of the republic is not in the hands of professional politicians. For some time the leaders had become a mutual admiration society. Healy used to see a half around the head of Sexton and the latter will discover that Healy is a great man. Healy really had immense ability, but the people will not accept him. At the last conversation but one that I ever had with Parnell he said to me, 'I have pleasure in my suggestion that among his political friends the fairest was Dillon, and the lowest Healy and P. O'Shea, and the most contemptible Justin McCarthy.'"

French Ministers Rejoice.
Gendarmes Charge the Rioters, But No Person is Injured.
Marseilles, Oct. 9.—Ministers Guyot Roche and Rouyer to-day were treated to a rather exciting experience. They left the prefecture in carriages escorted by the Hussars and a number of gendarmes. The streets were thronged with a sight-seeing cheering multitude, but at several points along the route pronounced hissing and booing were heard. This was especially true in the neighborhood of the Hotel de Ville. The rioters were dispersed by the gendarmes and the rioters were dispersed.

Dispatches from Amoy, China.
There has been serious rioting 40 miles from there. The population of Amoy, amounting to 300,000 people, was in a state of great excitement. The riot was caused by fiscal abuses. Several mandarins and other officials were killed by the rioters. The riots have been quelled.

Young Woman from Moscow.
A young woman from Moscow was arrested at St. Petersburg yesterday charged with being a nihilist. She confessed and admitted she had left a trunk at the house of a well-known composer, Glazounoff, in which was a revolutionary proclamation. The police immediately proceeded to the house of Glazounoff, which they thoroughly searched and found the nihilist manifesto. He was vehemently protested his innocence. He was nevertheless compelled to deposit a bail of 15,000 roubles to avoid arrest, pending an investigation.

THE BROADWAY TABERNACLE.

THE LAST CONTRIBUTION ON THIS UNPLEASANT BUSINESS.

Everybody Concerned Seems to Have Had His Say—No More Can Be Done By Closing the Correspondence—The Full Report of Monday's Meeting Will Follow and End the Matter.

The World was prepared to give up a great deal of the space of this morning's issue to a full report of the meeting in Broadway Tabernacle on Monday last, but circumstances prevented that intention from being carried out. The report is a long one and the space is limited. It is therefore determined to publish it in the edition of the paper to be issued this evening.

Mr. Venous is Unusually Active.
Mr. Venous is unusually active, as its interest forces are at work. For the past few days Mr. Venous has been unusually active, and an eruption is expected at any moment. A column of fire has been visible above the crater in the day time, and frequent rumbling, accompanied by slight tremors, shows that the internal forces are at work.

General of King Mark.
STRETTON, Oct. 9.—The funeral ceremonies of the late King of Wurtemberg took place at 10 o'clock. A memorial service was held in the cathedral room. The cathedral was surrounded by a handsome baldachin. The casket was placed in a richly draped funeral car and conveyed, followed by the mourning nobilities, to the old castle of the kings of Wurtemberg, Queen Charlotte, wife of the King of Wurtemberg, and the royal princesses present.

The Court chaplain preached the sermon and eulogized the noble qualities of the monarch. After these services the casket was lowered into the vault. As the casket disappeared an anthem echoed from the organ and a salvo of artillery along the walls of the cathedral.

The Emperor of Germany arrived to attend the funeral of the late king. At 10 o'clock the Emperor was King William II. The Princess of Wurtemberg, Princess Henry of Prussia and a number of distinguished guests.

Legation for the King's Favourite.
STRETTON, Oct. 9.—There is a report that the King of Wurtemberg has left legation to a considerable amount to the two Americans, Jackson and George, whom he had sent away from Luxembourg in 1880 on account of the protests of the public that he showed to them too much favor.

Dragged His Daughter From the Tonic.
QUEENSTOWN, Oct. 9.—Rev. Bartley Ellis of Wigan, Lancashire, boarded the steamer Tonic, from Liverpool to New York, here to attend to his duties. He was accompanied by a young man and woman, who seemed dreadfully frightened and ashamed when confronted with him. No sooner had he caught sight of the young woman than he seized her violently by the arm, dragged her from her seat, and hurled a shower of abuse, and literally dragged her down the steamer's side and on board the tender to New York.

The Russian Famine.
ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 9.—The prices of food are rapidly rising throughout the empire. At Warsaw the cost of provisions has increased in an extraordinary manner. The Russian famine is a most serious one. The famine is a most serious one. The famine is a most serious one.

Russian Forgers Captured.
ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 9.—The police have arrested a band of forgers at Kief who have been trading in counterfeit bank notes of ten, five and three rubles representing an enormous sum. The notes were well executed, and were not detected by the genuine paper. Many of the counterfeit notes have already been circulated outside of the Russian Empire.

Rio Janeiro, Oct. 9.—Serious outbreak in investigation.

HANGED HIMSELF TO A SWING.

Tragic Death of a Spungingman Near Wingham, in the House Antiquary.

WIGHAM, Oct. 9.—A very painful tragedy took place at Wingham on Thursday morning. Thomas Clampton hanged himself on a swing rope in front of the door of his daughter Mrs. Joseph Nixon. His feet were resting on the ground when found by his daughter about 6:30 a.m. The old man was 73 years of age and was strong and robust and had shown no signs of despondency. He was in Wingham on Tuesday, somewhat the worse of liquor; but nothing was seen in him who should commit so terrible a deed, and no one seemed to know the cause.

Saints Flax "Crab."
One of the Losers in Flax and All are Heavily Fined.

ST. CATHARINES, Oct. 9.—The police raided a gambling room in St. Paul-street last night and several citizens including in a game called "shooting crab." The keeper of the room was fined $50 and each of the frequenters $10. The information was given by the officers through one of the frequenters, who had lost all his money and informed on his pad because they were not and had nothing to continue the play.

Condition of Trade.
The Export Demand For Wheat and Bye Products is a Feature.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Telegrams to Broadway report that there is a fair distribution of dry goods in the Dominion of Canada. The Province of Quebec generally trade is fairly active and moderately so in Ontario. The export demand for wheat continues a feature. The Dominion reports 28 million bushels this week against 29 last week and 30 this week last year. The total number, Jan. 1 to date, is 1878 against 1840 last year.

Managied by a Cable Car.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 9.—The Carnival of the Priests of Dallas opened last night with a procession of illuminated floats. At the corner of Tenth and Main streets, where thousands of people were gathered to witness the parade, a cable car became unmanageable and crashed through the crowd, injuring about 25 persons, six of them very severely. Those most seriously injured are: George Thoms, 70 years of age; left side of face from ear to eye; right eye crushed and may die; James Marshall, negro; sustained a fracture of the skull and will die.

Killed by a Threshing Machine.
RICHMOND, Ont., Oct. 9.—A little girl six years of age belonging to Mr. Richard Wells was playing around the threshing machine when she was struck and killed. She was dragged to the threshing machine, which was being worked by her father. The child only lived a few hours.

HOW TO RENT A HOUSE.

The success of The World's Real Estate Guide is phenomenal. Over 100 houses are listed in this day's issue, every one of which is a home file announcement, and the best evidence of the fact that house owners and house agents have recognized the merits of our plans.

Men and women that we have never before seen in a newspaper office were yesterday getting copies of the paper in order to hunt for a house in the city, and those agents and owners who are ready to spend 30 cents in advertising them in our list stand an excellent chance of obtaining tenants.

A Plum Stone in Her Lung.
A Listowel Woman Dying From the Effects of a Peculiar Disease.

LISTOWEL, Ont., Oct. 9.—Mrs. James Brighin, who resides with her husband in Fenwick-street, is in a precarious condition. She has a plum stone in her lung. While eating a plum the stone went down into the wind-pipe and from thence to the lungs, from whence her medical attendants have found it impossible to dislodge it. Its presence has caused the lady, who is upwards of 60 years of age, a great amount of suffering and incessant fits of coughing. There is little hope that she will survive her deplorable situation.
