FIRE ON AN ATLANTIC LINER.

Fatal Explosion Followed by Fire on La

New York, July 14.—La Normandie, arrived from Havre this morning, had a decidedly eventful voyage. Just after her departure from Havre, a fire broke out in the engine room, and the ship was forced to stop. The fire was quickly extinguished, but the ship was delayed. The passengers were not alarmed, and the ship continued its voyage. The fire was caused by a fault in the engine, and the ship was delayed for several days.

On July 9, just after the passengers had seated themselves at dinner, fire was discovered in the forehold, and a fire alarm was instantly sounded. The crew ran to the fire stations, and lines of hose were stretched along the decks. The passengers were quiet and orderly under the circumstances, and there was no panic. Officers and crew worked systematically all night long, and toward morning had the fire well under control. At 5 o'clock on the morning of the 10th, the fire was entirely out. The passengers, headed by Bishop O'Connell, drew up a set of resolutions thanking Captain Delancey, his officers and crew for their bravery and energy. La Normandie made port without further incident, except a birth in the steerage.

AN ALLIED HIGHWAYMAN.

One of the men who attacked McFarlane, supposed to be in custody.
Harris Jackson, 37 Harbord-street, was arrested Saturday on a charge of attempted highway robbery. He is thought to be one of the men who waylaid William McFarlane on a highway on the night of June 20. It was reported that McFarlane was struck with a beer bottle instead of with a sandbag. A warrant was issued for Jackson two days after the occurrence, but he managed to evade arrest until Saturday, when Sgt. Hales cornered him in the back yard of a Nelson-street house.

Parachutist Killed.

London, July 13.—An Australian parachutist named Campbell met with a fatal accident to-day at Horsham, Sussex. He was ascending in his balloon, and had arisen to the height of 50 feet, when the car suddenly detached itself from the ropes and fell to the ground, striking a chimney. Campbell was thrown out and fell to the ground, receiving injuries from which he is dying.

His Body the Sport of Four Trains.

Smith's Falls, Ont., July 13.—A young man named Wesley Griffin, residing near Brockville, was run over and killed on the railway track near here last night. His remains were found this morning scattered along the track, and must have been tossed back and forth by four trains which passed through during the night.

Killed Her Two Children.

Sheffield, Ill., July 14.—Mrs. J. Debye of Annawan, in a crazy fit last night killed her two children, aged 3 and 5 years, by clubbing their heads with a hatchet. Mrs. Debye had recently been liberated from an insane asylum. She and her husband had trouble, and it was when angry at her husband that she committed the act. She is under arrest.

Two Young Women Drowned.

Cincinnati, July 14.—Last night, while a party of pleasure-seekers were rowing on the Ohio River, the boat capsized, and Mary Burke and Margaret Collins were drowned.

Disembowelled by a Cow.

Deer, Ont., July 13.—A 7-year-old son of John Farrough of Maidstone was fatally gored by a cow on Friday evening about 6 o'clock. The wound six inches in length was made in the abdomen. The child died this morning.

Five Killed by a Powder Explosion.

Rome, July 14.—An explosion occurred to-day in a powder magazine at Tivoli, 13 miles from Rome. Five persons were killed and several injured.

His Neck Broken by a Blow.

Poughkeepsie, July 13.—Fred Garrison and his step-son, John Stengel, went into their barn here Saturday to take care of their horses. Stengel undertook to put his horse in a vacant stall, but Garrison objected. Stengel hit Garrison a powerful blow in the face. Garrison fell backward and struck his head on the partition of the stall. His neck was broken and he died almost instantly. Stengel gave himself up. He was held on a charge of murder.

Sunday Fires.

At 2:15 Sunday morning P.C. Kerr sent in an alarm of fire from box 52104. The fire was in the upper flat of 110 Queen-street east. The store is occupied by Mrs. H. E. Sterling, milliner, the family occupying the rooms above. Mrs. Sterling and family left the store at 10 p.m. Saturday to spend the Sunday at Long Branch. The stairway leading to the second floor was ignited in some manner, and communicated the fire to the rooms above. The origin of the fire is a complete mystery. Loss by fire and water $300. Insurance not known.

Fire in the Mammoth Billiard Hall.

An alarm from box 143 gave the firemen a run to the store of J.P. Brown, 862 Spadina-avenue, at 8:15 last evening. No damage.

Fire in the Mammoth Billiard Hall.

A fire in the Mammoth Billiard Hall, 122 King-street west, occupied by W. O. Widdie & Co., and owned by Mr. Hughes, caused $25 damage on Saturday morning. Insured in British America, same unknown.

A burning chimney at 183 Niagara-street gave the Dundas-street firemen a run on Saturday afternoon.

A fire was also caused last night at 6:45 in the store of J.T. Brown, 862 Spadina. No damage.

THREE MOTIONS OF CENSURE

WILL BE BROUGHT UP BEFORE THE HOUSE TO-MORROW.

Mr. McCarthy, Mr. Laurier and Mr. Dupont

Will Move, Want of Confidence—McCarthy's Motion to Amend the Constitution—His Following May Be Small

Ottawa, Ont., July 14.—Although the session is within sight, the expiring days of the session are not without interest to a political student. Three motions of want of confidence are to be submitted by Messrs. Laurier, McCarthy and Dupont, respectively. The nature of the motions of the leaders of the Liberal and Third parties has been announced. Mr. Dupont's will condemn the Government for not introducing a Remedial Law this session, as promised.

The Government, it is understood, will not place any obstacle in the way of these motions coming before the House. On the contrary, it will afford every opportunity for the discussion.

Two of the resolutions—Mr. McCarthy's and Mr. Dupont's—directly challenge the policy of the Government on the school question. Mr. Laurier's is framed in the spirit of the cognomen which the Blackfriars Indians are said to have applied to the Opposition leader. His new name is Oonka-Bah-Ma, No, which, being interpreted, means, "Man afraid to say what he thinks."

Mr. McCarthy's object

One can well understand Mr. Laurier's anxiety to trip the Government and Mr. Dupont's desire to make himself solid with the electors of Bagot.

The chief interest, however, centres in Mr. McCarthy's motion. As an Ontario member, the leader of the Third party desires to make the lot of Ontario Conservatives as uncomfortable as possible; but if he expects a considerable support in his resolution Mr. McCarthy will be woefully disappointed. The general impression in the lobby is that he will not get much more than a corporal's guard from the Conservative rank to vote with him. The supporters of the Government, however, are not so much concerned with the result of the motion as they are with the chance to settle the school question, no good reason can be assigned why they should be asked to prejudice the case at this session. If, in the event of no conclusion on the school question, next, then it will be open to the members of the House to act according to the best of their judgment.

Archbishop Langevin of St. Boniface arrived here yesterday.

Bush and Bonbricht's piano store, in Sparks-street, was gutted by fire this morning. The damage is estimated at $3000. The firm were local agents for the Heintzman Company, Toronto.

Liberals and the Schools.

To a reporter who called at his office the members of the Liberal caucus, following the present crisis at the Capital: The Government has alienated the support of both Catholic and Protestant supporters, who are equally dissatisfied with its manner of dealing with the school question. I am sure that I cannot say positively who will supplant Mr. Angers, but it will be either Mr. Girouard or Mr. Langevin. I am fervently praying for the success of the Liberal party, that it will be the success of the Catholic party. I do not think that I will re-enter the Cabinet.

"Will you party do if it were in power?"

"Well, as the Conservatives have got themselves into the hole, we are not going to let them out. We will then throw them out, but when I say that we will be placed in power, we will be placed in power in a manner satisfactory to all, I mean that we have positively prepared our arrangements to meet the situation. I say this, realizing what I am talking about, and knowing full well all about the plans of which I speak."

FOUR LITTLE BASKIN.

Three Girls and a Boy at a Birth is Mrs. Rankin's Record.

Pittsburg, July 14.—Mrs. Elizabeth Rankin, wife of Hugh Rankin, gave birth to four children, three male and one female, last evening. One of the male children died in the afternoon. The other three are doing well. The aggregate weight of the four was 20 pounds.

COL. SAUNDERS' FREDICTION.

A Royal Resolution—Inland in Place of a Political Lieutenant.

London, July 13.—Col. Saunders, member of Parliament for North Armagh, has been elected to the post of lieutenant of the House of Commons, a position of honor and importance. The House of Commons has elected Col. Saunders to the post of lieutenant of the House of Commons, a position of honor and importance. The House of Commons has elected Col. Saunders to the post of lieutenant of the House of Commons, a position of honor and importance.

Price Fighting in Texas Illegal.

Austin, Tex., July 14.—Attorney-General Crane to-day gave to the public his opinion of the law of 1891, which prohibits price fighting in Texas. The Attorney-General holds that the law is valid and operative. This opinion is contrary to that of many lawyers. The Attorney-General instructs the sheriff of Dallas County that it is not his duty to question the legality of any law, but that he must carry out the provisions of the law until said law is set aside by the courts.

A New Idea.

The Toronto Ferry Company, with their usual desire to meet the wants of the public, have decided to meet the wants of the public by fitting up the ferry with all the latest improvements, including first-class and competent artists in the hand-drawn line, both for ladies and gentlemen.

The first execution at the Jersey City dog pound caused some excitement. The dog was put in the cage to be drawn, and 13 of the dogs escaped and ran through the fashionable part of the city. The drawing system is old-fashioned and should be replaced by a more humane and there are no escapes.

The ship Flora of Toronto went from Vancouver to Seattle, Wash., on Saturday. The ship was loaded with 200 miles, to go in a race. The meet of the International Yacht Racing Association was on July 4. All the fastest boats took part in the race. On the 5th, in which the Flora, owned by J. Thornton, won second prize in a gale of wind.

A DEAD LETTER ROMANCE.

But the Sequel is Not Yet Known—Did Andy Go to Annie or Is Her Name Nellie?

If an errant Toronto knight has not materialized before the gaze of his adoring Hamilton lady at the time specified by her, there is a possibility that there has been a tragedy under the shadow of the mountain and that another soul has sought rest in that peaceful village and all on account of a poorly-addressed envelope.

The Hamilton Times says:

The Letter Went Astray.

Mr. John Irwin of the Kramer-Irwin Company got an awful shock to his nerves on the other day. A letter from the dead letter office was handed to him, with the inquiry, "Do you know anything about this?" The letter was originally mailed in Hamilton, but, as the person to whom it was addressed could not be found, it was sent to Ottawa where it was opened, and afterwards returned to the authorities here, who endeavored to find the address of the person to whom it was addressed.

"Mr. Andy Irwin, No. — DEPOUIT-ST., Toronto." The letter was a remarkable one. It was a love letter, and it was addressed to "Annie," who was the name of the person to whom it was addressed.

Mr. Irwin said that he knew nothing about the letter, and was somewhat threatened with a lawsuit if he did not find the person to whom it was addressed.

PADEREWSKI'S HOME.

A Description of It by an American Correspondent.

A correspondent of the Milwaukee Sentinel was permitted to see Paderewski's home in Paris, which he thus describes:

The room in which he works is sombre and picturesque. Paintings line the walls and crimson hangings shade the windows. The air is laden with the perfume of flowers, the gifts of those known and unknown who, during his stay in Paris, surround him daily with those silent tributes to his genius.

The first thing that strikes the eye on entering is a portrait of the great musician, by a famous Austrian painter, and to the right, on a velvet plaque, is a beautiful silver laurel wreath presented to Paderewski by the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Chopin on his death bed and a landscape of great value adorn the wall, and the study stands forth in a luminous golden atmosphere is a marble bust of Chopin crowned with a wreath of exquisite workmanship, presented to Paderewski by the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Not allowed to linger very long, so I passed to the tables were rare and valuable. In the study, the Duke's body had been placed at Algiers, were of such great weight that more than twenty men were required to carry them to the mausoleum, in front of the castle, where two carriages loaded with wreaths, conspicuous among which were those sent by the Duchess and the Duke's only daughter, and by the Prince and Princess of Wales and Prince and Princess Christian.

The late Duke of Hamilton complained that he had no home. It was not because he had no residence, for he had half a dozen stately palaces. But, as the old song says:

Home's not merely four square walls, But with pictures hung and glad.

Home is where there's one to love. Home is where there's one to love. Home is where there's one to love. Home is where there's one to love.

Home is where there's one to love. Home is where there's one to love. Home is where there's one to love. Home is where there's one to love.

Home is where there's one to love. Home is where there's one to love. Home is where there's one to love. Home is where there's one to love.
