St. John's Rovers 2, Caleys 2

The game at St. Thomas between the Caleys and Rovers was productive of one of the season's best games. The same was clean and evenly contested throughout, and the crowd, which was one of the largest of the season, was well satisfied, while the splendid work of E. Carr was greatly appreciated of well satisfied, while the splendid work of F. G. Carr was greatly appreciated. President Morgan, of the London and District, was present at the game and congratulated the teams on their splendid showing. The Caleys were the first to get going and in less than 10 minutes had opened the scoring through Peterson, their center. The Rovers were not to be defined and very quickly equalized through Jacques. From then on to lemon time the game was very even, and as no further scoring took place the teams crossed over on equal terms, one goal each. Upon resuming, the Caleys again took up the attack and Peterson, who was in splendid form for the Caleys, got the ball in mid-field and, cluding several players, went through and scored single-handed. It was a clever piece of work. This lead they maintained to within 10 minutes of the finish when Marchant, the Rovers' outside left, got away and goal, and Marchant netted, but was given an offside. Notes On the Game

Congratulations to the C. N. R. on their splendid showing at Meritton. Now we shall have the pleasure of a cure game in London. Thanks to the Railroaders.

The replay will take place at the C. N. R. grounds next Saturday and a great game should be seen as Merritton has a good team.

They are real sports, we hear, and treated the Railroaders right royally. It is up to every football fain to turn out and give both teams their whole-hearted support.
