To the Electors of the Parishes of Saint Stephen,

GENTLEMEN.—I have much pleasure in receipt of your several requisitions, to offer myself as a Candidate at the ensuing Election. I assure you, Gentlemen, I feel highly flattered with the honor you have conferred upon me, and the confidence you have expressed in the requisitions, coming as they do from such respectable sources, and feel myself in duty bound to respond to your wishes.
I am truly yours,

GENTLEMEN.—In compliance with the foregoing requisitions, I now offer myself as a Candidate for the representation of this County, at the ensuing engaged in all the most important branches of the business of the County, I trust, if I have the honor to be returned one of your representatives, the able successfully to advocate the true interests of the County generally, and of this County in particular.

I remain truly yours,

TO THE FREEHOLDERS OF THE COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.
September 30, 1846.
GENTLEMEN.—Since addressing you in August, I have been the pledge, there given of visiting all the Parishes, and for the very land and hospitable manner in which I have been everywhere received, I beg to tender my warmest thanks, for in no part of the world, had it been my fortune to have seen a greater part of it, have I met with more courtesy and real good feeling. Should there be any person, who, by accident, I omitted talking upon in my tour, I trust they will im-pute the omission to no other reason than the one referred to; for I have been my wish to see every one if possible.
I am further gratified to find, that the right of the Islands to a member is almost universally allowed, and coming forward as such, with the kind assistance of so many friends, who have promised me their support, in every Parish, without any exception, I do not hesitate to say, that on the day of Election, the name of your faithful servant will not be very low down on the Poll.
