REV. F. M. CLAY AWARDED CARNEGIE MEDAL

Saved Several Lives at Casadagga N. Y.

A bluesone in the person of Rev. F. M. Clay, who recently closed his pastorate at Chester, N. S., has been signally honored by Fund Commission, who have presented him with the Carnegie Hero Medal and one thousand dollars for saving the lives of Florence M., Robert B., and Marjorie E. Morrison, at Casadagga, N. Y., on December 1st, 1916. Mr. Clay was seriously injured when he stopped a horse which was running away with Mrs. Morrison and her two children at Casadagga. After a thorough investigation of all the circumstances the Hero Fund Commission presented Mr. Clay with their medal which is in bronze and suitably inscribed, on the one side with a head of Mr. Carnegie, and on the other with the words "Awarded to Fred M. Clay for rescuing Florence M., Robert B., and Marjorie E. Morrison, at Casadagga, New York, December 1st, 1916 and 'Greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friends.'"

The facts of the rescue are that a horse which was running away with a buggy in which were Mrs. Morrison and her two small children, was caught and finally thrown by Mr. Clay after he had been dragged almost seven hundred yards had his clothes torn off and most of his teeth knocked out. The children and their mother were thrown over the dashboard into the arms of on lookers and were unhurt. In stopping the horse, Mr. Clay fell underneath him and was knocked unconscious in which state he remained for some six hours.

A DESIRE TO EAT WHAT YOU WANT

How Stomachs Can Be Restored to a Vigorous, Healthy Condition

Not to be limited in diet, but to eat whatever he pleases is the dream of every dyspeptic. No one can honestly promise to restore any stomach to this happy condition, because all people cannot eat the same things with equally satisfactory results. It is literally true that "what is one man's food is another man's poison." But it is possible to so tone up the digestive organs that a pleasing diet may be selected from articles of food that cause no discomfort.

When the stomach lacks tone there is no quicker way to restore it than to build up the blood. Good digestion without rich, red blood is impossible, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills offer the very best way to build up and enrich the blood. For this reason these pills are especially good in stomach trouble attended by thin blood, and in attacks of nervous dyspepsia. Proof of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is in even the most obstinate cases of stomach trouble is given by Mrs. S. Morrison, Varny, Ont., who says: "I shall always feel indebted to a friend who advised me to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I had been a sufferer for upwards of twelve years with stomach trouble which resulted in a general weakness of the whole system. My meals always caused me great discomfort, and at times I would go hungry rather than undergo the suffering which followed meals. I was constantly taking something or other recommended for the trouble, but without finding a cure, and often the trouble kept me in bed when I should have been about doing my housework. My friend, who had a similar attack came to see me and urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which had cured her. I got a supply at once and began taking them, and soon found relief. By the time I had used eight boxes I was again enjoying the best of health, and with a good appetite and a stomach restored to normal. Had I known of this medicine earlier it would have saved me years of suffering, and I urge any who may be in a similar condition to try these pills at once."

PURE LUCK

"Do you believe in luck?"
 "Sometimes. See that fat woman with the red hat over there."
 "Yes."
 "Twenty years ago she refused to marry me."

JUST HIS LUCK

Mrs. L.—"I was so mad last night I couldn't speak."
 Mr. L.—"And I was away! Just my luck."

 Suburbs—"Oh, certainly not. But as soon as one leaves they engage another."

A STORY FROM MONTREAL

A man from Toronto went into a saloon in Montreal and wrote on a piece of paper, "A glass of whiskey, please."
 The bartender did as he was bid and gave the man a drink, and after he was finished with that one he wrote for another and still another. Then he wrote, "How much do I owe you?"
 The bartender said that it was all right because he didn't charge deaf and dumb men.
 The customer spoke up: "I'm not deaf and dumb; I'm from Toronto and was so dry I couldn't talk."

DEED NOT WANT TO KNOW EVERYTHING

A farmer saw a boy plucking apples from one of his best apple trees. He tried to catch him, but the boy was too quick for him, and so the farmer changed his tactics.
 "Come here, my little son," he said in a soft voice, with a counterfeited friendliness, "come here to me a minute! I want to tell you something."
 "Not likely!" replied the boy. "Little ones like me don't need to know everything."

SOME CABBAGE

Hans was speaking about the high price of cabbage in his town. "Kebbeges is awful high dis year," he said. "Me and mine wife puts up seven, eight, nine barrels of sauerkraut every year—but we can't do dis year. De kebbeges cost too much."
 "But you put up some sauerkraut didn't you, Hans?" questioned a friend.
 "Oh, yes, two or three barrels—just to haf in de house in case of sickness."

BEEN AT THE FRONT

The tramp knocked at the back door, and the woman of the house appeared. "Lady, I was at the front!"
 "Poor man!" she interrupted. "Wait till I give you some food, and then you must tell me your story." After she had given him a hearty meal she anxiously inquired, "What brave deed did you do at the front?"
 "I knocked," he replied meekly. "but I couldn't make nobody hear, so I came around to the back."

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES.

Thousands of mothers state positively that Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine they know of for little ones. Their experience has taught them that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them and that they can be given with perfect safety to children of all ages. Concerning them Mrs. Joseph Therrien, St. Gabriel de Brandon, Que. writes: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I know of for little ones. I thought I would lose my baby before trying the Tablets but they soon made him healthy and happy and now I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ONLY THE THIRD

"Let me see," said the minister, who was filling out the marriage certificate and had forgotten the date "this is the fifth, is it not?"
 "No, sir!" said the bride with some indignation, "this is only my third."
