

BOOK SECOND

CASE'S SPECIAL FIELD AND FELLOW-LABORERS WHEN HE ENTERED IT, WITH SOME THINGS RETROSPECTIVE.

PARAGRAPH	PAGE
1. Conference in Asgrove—Methodized by the Palatines – Entertains 398 preachers	17
2. Received on trial with five others, one of whom is Robert Perry. 3 No preacher sent out of the Union without his consent—Case volunteers—His feelings in the forest of Black River.....	18
4. Progress of the work and numbers. 5 Names of eight circuits, and nine laborers.....	19
6. Coate's parentage, previous labors, remarkable talents, success and beauty of person—"The handsome pair"—Talents for writing.....	20
7. Next in seniority—Keeler's small beginning and progress—Voice. 8. Propable cause of retiring for a time—When received again—Extent of Oswegotchie in 1802—Niagara and Long Point	21
9. Causes of his long absence from his family, and their great trials.....	22
10. Two brethren of equal years—Ryan, Celtic, boxer, size, appearance, strength.....	23
11. Where a local preacher—Spicer's incident. 12. Energy of character had won him fame—Another reason for being sent to Canada.....	24
13. Where the previous five years had been spent. Hedding's testimony—His circuit.....	25
14. Daniel Pickett—When received and where he had labored. The writer's remembrance.....	26
15. Subjects in pairs—Two three-years' men—Bangs and Madden. 16. Nathan Bangs' birth-place and early history. Started for the wilds of Canada, May, 1799.	