" ftricteft League of Amity and Friendship with you. • and we shall always be faithful and true to you our old ' and good Allics .- The Governor of Canada talks a e great deal, but ten of his Words do not go fo far as one of yours.-We do not look towards them ; We · look towards you; and you may depend on our Affif-Whilft the Onondago Chief made this open and • tance.' hearty Declaration, all the other Indians made frequently that particular Kind of Noife which is known to be a Mark of Approbation.-- The Governor bid the Interpreter tell Canaffateego, 'He did not fet on foot this Inquiry " from any Sufpicion he had of the Six Nations wanting a · due Regard for the English .- Our Experience of their . Honour and Faith would not permit us to think any · other of them than that they would efteem our Friends • their Friends, and our Enemies their Enemies, agreea-• ble to the ftrict Union which had ever fublifted between • us.-As to the Governor of Canada, they need not mind • what he faid .- The English, on equal Terms, had beat • the French, and could beat them again : And were • they but to confider the Advantages which the English · have, by poffeffing fo many large and populous Countries, and fo many good Ports on the Continent of Ame-· rica, they would foon fee who had most Reason to fear • a War, the French or the English?

Here the Conversation drop'd; and, after another Glais of Wine, the Indians refumed the Difcourse, by arking, whether their Brethren had not been for some Time engaged in a War with the King of Spain, and what Successive had met with?

The Governor told them, the King of Great Britain lived in an Ifland, and being furrounded with the Sea, his chief Strength lay in his Ships; in which he was fo much fuperior to his Enemies, that they were feldom to be met with on the broad Ocean, but fculk'd and hid themfelves, only venturing out now and then; and whenewer they did, they were almost fure to be taken; and that
