

Attractive Premiums for 'Messenger' Subscribers.

Open to all readers of the 'Messenger,' young or old. Remit for the various offers as given under, naming your premium clearly, and we dispatch it to you promptly, postpaid.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS

When new subscribers are stipulated, we mean absolutely bonafide new subscribers, that is, people in whose homes the paper in question has not been taken for at least two years.

RENEWALS

The main support of the 'Messenger' is its vast number of renewal subscriptions and, while the following premium offers are made to secure new subscribers chiefly, we are willing to allow friends to include renewals in any list, but only on the basis of two renewals for each single new subscription required.

All these premium propositions are based on the full regular rates, both for renewals and new subscriptions, since those who take advantage of premium offers are not entitled to club prices on the same orders.

In any of these premium offers, a bonafide new subscription to the 'Weekly Witness,' at $1.00 will, desired, be taken as equal to two new 'Messenger' subscriptions.

MAPLE LEAF BROOCH.
