THE LARGE 103, YONGE STREET

Daily the tidings are brought from afar
Of the noise, the confusion, the law's of war,
And the topics now heard in the parlour on street
Are the strength of the army and the loss of the fleet
But Britain decides, and decides not in vain—
That she shall the peace of the North maintain, That while Nicholas thunders in his customary Her standard shall float o'er each threaten'd shore.
And the tri-colored flag and the eagle are joined,
Their armies united, and the fleets are combined,
And the sons of each nation in their awful strife
Are determined to conquer or forfeit their life.
Yet tho' the war rage the thing is quite clear,
You must have new clothes at this time of the year.
Nor would it be prudent or wise to delay In making your purchase much later than May.

Now, PEARSON has studied the statements below
In a lecture to fabrics and prices will show—
By securing the purchase of a new dress,
To make large provisions for these wonderful times.

His Stock is neither inferior or small But such as he trusts will satisfy all,
And he therefore expects very early to see His esteemed patrons at the ONE HUNDRED AND THREE.

CANADA vs. THE WORLD.

READER, If you inquire of any person or persons who have ever visited C. S. Powers' Newcastle Marble Works, or purchased Marble from any of his numerous Agents in Canada West, they will tell you that this is positively the LARGEST, BEST and CHEAPEST Establishment of the kind in the Province, and not inferior to any in British North America. His Marble, which he imports direct from the native Quarries, is of a very superior quality, and comprises every variety of European and American Marble in demand in this Country, and as he employs none but first class Sculptors in its manufacture, his work is pre-eminently distinguished for originality and beauty of design, and skill in execution. He is now constantly manufacturing to order:

- Monuments,
- Obelisks,
- Tomb-tables,
- Head-stones,
- Ornamental Inclosures,
- Manile Pieces, &
- Murble Furniture,

of every description, at prices which cannot fail to secure the Patronage of a large portion of the Canadian public. If you wish to save your money, do not order work from any other House, without previously ascertaining his prices, which will upon application, be furnished to any intending purchaser free of charge.
Orders sent by mail should be post-paid and addressed,

N. B.—Any responsible person wishing to act as Local Agent for this establishment, will, by forwarding his address, be supplied with a schedule of prices, and a liberal percentage allowed him for his trouble in receiving orders. There are many persons in Canada West thus employed, who without materially interfering with their other engagements, are making $10 to $15 per week as commission upon such sales.
