

The Ontarian Genealogist and Family Historian.

NO. 6.

OCTOBER 1899.

To Our Subscribers.

A few of our friends still owe their subscriptions for the first year of the GENEALOGIST, ending with part 4, published in April last, and quite a number have not yet paid for the current year. This work is carried on by the Editor without any remuneration or personal advantage, and at a cost which cannot be kept within the limits of the subscription list. The Editor has neither time nor inclination to collect unpaid subscriptions, and the price of $1.00 or $1.50 a year is so small that it would not afford any adequate remuneration to a paid collector. The subscriptions, therefore, of those who neglect to pay, will be dropped and no more copies of the GENEALOGIST will be sent to them.
