

By far the best work of its class existing in any language.—N. Y. TRIBUNE.

A CYCLOPÆDIA OF Biblical, Theological & Ecclesiastical Literature.

By the late REV. JOHN McCLINTOCK, D.D., and JAMES STRONG, S.T.D.

WITH NUMEROUS MAPS, ABOUT 2,500 ILLUSTRATIONS; and 30,000 SUBJECTS UNDER THE FOLLOWING DIVISIONS:

- | | |
|-------------------------|--|
| I. BIBLICAL LITERATURE. | IV. RELIGIOUS BIOGRAPHY. |
| II. THEOLOGY. | V. ECCLESIASTICAL TERMS AND USAGES. |
| III. CHURCH HISTORY. | |

In fine, all the items of SACRED TECHNOLOGY will be found in this work, classified under general and special titles—the whole UNDER ONE ALPHABET, and in volumes of a convenient size. The subdivisions of articles are clearly indicated by paragraphs with appropriate headings.

The appropriate Literature (not universal, but select and discriminate, as far as possible) is subjoined to all the foregoing subjects, indicating the sources of fuller information for those who may desire it, and at the same time completing the history of each topic.

In all its departments the Cyclopædia—though the authors have never sought to conceal their own theological sentiments—will be characterized by freedom from sectarian jealousy and narrowness of view, while it will yet be pervaded by the spirit of a sound Christianity. Among the contributors are some of the most eminent names in the various religious denominations of this country, and several from abroad.

☞ The articles under Division I. (BIBLICAL LITERATURE) are more comprehensive than those in the ordinary Cyclopædians, while those under Division II. (THEOLOGY), Division III. (CHURCH HISTORY), Division IV. (RELIGIOUS BIOGRAPHY), and Division V., are not included in the "Biblical" Dictionaries now before the public. There are very many articles in these latter departments not represented in any similar work hitherto produced in any language. Full half the articles are scholarly original, and nearly all the rest are largely so.

SOME OPINIONS.

No one can read a page of it without perceiving that it is a work upon which much honest labour has been spent, and that it is of incalculable value for ministers, theological students, and Sunday-school teachers. It is a work of reference which none of us can well do without.—Sunday-School Times, Philadelphia.

A great excellence of this work is that it is edited up to date. For many reasons, valuable as are other dictionaries and encyclopædias, this will be found to have excellent peculiarities of its own to secure for it a place in all working libraries.—Congregationalist, Boston.

From the REV. PHILIP SCHAFF, D.D.—It is truly an opus magnum and an honour to American scholarship, industry, and enterprise. The whole work is a theological reference library of inestimable value, and is not likely to be superseded for the next twenty years. * * * I authorize you to add my name to the list of scholars who recommend the work.

From the REV. STEPHEN H. TYNG, D.D., New York.—It is a compendium of great research and equal attainment, and will be a very valuable help to the discriminating student of Holy Scripture.

If space permitted we could give hundreds of testimonials from the very best scholars of all denominations.

In order to give every one the opportunity of purchasing this extensive and valuable work, we have decided to sell it on the
