NORTH AMERICAN LIFE ASSURANCE CO.

The report of this company will be found on another page. It shows marked and very satisfactory progress. It arrived too late to enable us to comment on it at length in this issue, so we must allow the report to speak for itsel, and beg to refer our readers to it. We can merely congratulate the company on the position it has attained, which is a credit to the management.

Portroit of Mr. E. B. Harper—A very true steel portrait of Mr. E. B. Harper, President of the Mutual Reserve Fund Association of New York, has lately appeared in one of our American Exchanges (probably as an advertisement). We thought many of our readers would be pleased to see a correct and faithful representation of this gentleman, and we at one wrote to the proprietor of that paper to know if arrangements could be made by us to reproduce it. Our letter was, we were informed, referred to Mr. Harper himself, the owner of the cut, from whom we were told we would probably hear, for he could have no objection to our doing as we proposed. Mr. Harper has, however, thought it better policy to take no notice of the matter. Probably many of our friends would have liked to compare our previous pen picture with the original, but for the present we cannot afford them that pleasure.
