

THE Coggeshall Manufacturing Company, of Melrose, Mass., U.S.A., owners of the patents for the Dominion of Canada for the Hamblin High Speed Cotton Loom, have made arrangements with Young Bros., of Almonte, Ont., for the building of some looms immediately, and which, when completed, will be placed in some of our leading mills for trial. John Elliott, of the late firm of Elliott & Co., woolen manufacturers, Almonte, has been appointed selling agent for the Dominion, and solicits correspondence.

THE HEESON IMPROVED SHAKING FURNACE GRATE has no equal for all kinds of furnaces, round or square, boilers heating furnaces, ovens and stoves. It is the only grate that will clean fires without opening fire doors. It is the strongest bar known, having the most air space, thus securing better combustion. These bars are saving more fuel and generating more steam and will last longer than any other bars on the market. Ten per cent. saving in fuel guaranteed or no sale. References on application. HEESON GRATE BAR CO., 38 King St. East, Toronto

FOR SALE, A VALUABLE CANADIAN PATENT.—The Trenholm Improved Perpetual Hay Press, patented 1882, has been manufactured in New Brunswick for nine years, and stands without a rival in the Maritime Provinces. As it has not been introduced in the Upper Provinces, the purchaser can, if he manufactures there, get practically a complete control of the business in Canada, as this machine is cheaper, stronger, easier running and more durable than any other Press of its class, and is well protected by patent. Full investigation invited. Terms easy. Write for particulars to A. J. TRENHOLM, Sussex, N.B.

A RISING TOWN.—The Town of West Toronto Junction possesses exceptional residential and business advantages, and promises to speedily become the chief manufacturing centre of the Dominion. This town has the following railways, viz: Grand Trunk Main line (Carlton West Station); Northern Division of the Grand Trunk (Davenport Station); The Toronto, Grey and Bruce, and Credit Valley, and Ontario and Quebec Divisions of C.P.R., and Belt Line Railway (now in progress). The town offers to large manufacturers free sites, water at cost and exemption from taxation. Any information regarding the same will be given upon application to ROBT. J. LEIGH, Town Clerk, or D. W. CLENDENAN, Mayor.

WEST TORONTO JUNCTION ENTERPRISES.—The ten large factories which have located at West Toronto Junction during the past three years are all doing large trades. The "Barnum Iron and Wire Works," the "Toronto Rolling Mills and Forging Company," and others about to locate will swell the paying industries of the town and augment its population. A large number of fine residences and business blocks have added to its appearance and to its facilities for supplying the peoples' wants. A perfect fire alarm system (the "Gaynor"), and an efficient system of water-works, both now in operation, with sewers, electric lights and improved streets now contemplated, will add to the protection and the comfort of the people and their houses. Free sites, free water and exemption from taxes are inducements offered to first-class manufacturers, and it is now acknowledged by all that Toronto's western suburb, with its great continental railway connections, is destined to be among the most prosperous cities of Canada. Dr. Carleton is Chairman of the Factory Committee.

THE issue of the Dominion Illustrated for June 20th is a specially noteworthy one. As it is largely devoted to an account of the funeral of the late Sir John Macdonald, with profuse illustrations taken by their own special artists both at Ottawa and Kingston. As a special supplement a finely executed portrait of the late Premier, on heavy plate paper, is given with each number. The souvenir and memorial will be eagerly sought after by Canadians, irrespective of party. The Dominion Illustrated special Toronto number, issued with the endorsement of the Board of Trade, and supported by business men generally, as a valuable means of making the city more extensively known, is now in course of preparation. The publishers will shortly issue their mammoth Montreal number, advance sheets of which show it to be in every sense a work alike creditable to the publishers and to the city of Montreal. It will be a book of some 200 pages.

Good Housekeeping does not publish continued stories, or other incomplete matter, each number standing on its own merits, but it presents a rich variety of articles on important household topics, which are treated serially, each paper being complete in itself. This department is especially rich in the July number, comprising one of Miss Parloa's "Ten Mornings in the Kitchen," "Company Giving and Receiving," "Literary Snap-Shots," "Decorative Fashions and Fancies," "Amateur Entertainments," "Quaker Housekeeping," "Household Table Drinks," "The Family Medicine Chest," "Family Fashions and Fancies," and "Decorative Painting." Besides these ten series, with all the departments for the young and the curious, there are a great variety of stories, poetry and articles relating to many of the interests of life, all valuable. The price of Good Housekeeping is but $2.40 per year, and it is published by Clark W. Bryan & Co., Springfield, Mass.

Outing for July offers a tempting array of good things for all lovers of pure, wholesome literature and elegant, artistic work. "Beyond the Metropolis of the Mountains," by Ernest Ingersoll; "Rowing as a Recreation for Women," Chase Mellen; "The Lady in Rouge," W. E. P. French; "Boating Life on the Upper Thames," F. Campbell Moller, M.D.; "A Chapter in Lacrosse," Lionel Moses, Jr.; "Scientific Tennis Strokes," J. Parmly Paret; "With Rod and Line Through Ireland," T. Murphy; "Fishing Along the Pecos, New Mexico," John Carnifex; "Photographing Foliage," Ellerslie Wallace; "The Massachusetts Volunteer Militia," Capt. D. M. Taylor; "Harry's Career at Yale," John Seymour Wood; "Hurdling," Malcolm W. Ford; "American Polo," Lawrence Timpson; "The Detroit Wheelmen," P. N. Jacobson; "American Cycling and its Founder," C. D. Pratt, and the usual editorials, records, poems, etc., complete one of the best numbers we have seen.

If it is true that "not one American in a hundred knows how to take a vacation," the July number of The Ladies' Home Journal has a distinct educational value, for it quite overflows with new and good counsel for summerings; beside the hints for "The Mother in the Country," to which many clever women have contributed, there are helpful words from Mrs. Margaret Bottome and Dr. Talmage; while in the bright page for "The Women in the City" the lot of the stay-at-home is shown to be not so dreadful, after all. Other attractive features are Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher's "Birds in the Home"; the sketch and portrait of Mrs. Joel Chandler Harris; "A Bride in the Diamond Fields," by W. P. Pond; "A Bit of Switzerland," delicately pictured by Mary J. Holmes, and some very excellent fiction, in which "Isabel's Father," by Belle C. Greene, is given a prominent place; "A Soul from Pudge's Corners," by Jessie F. O'Donnell, and Mrs. Whitney's "A Golden Gossip," are continued stories of exceptional strength. One is conscious too, of the July sunshine flooding the department pages and, in fact, the whole number; better summer reading would be hard to find. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy; issued by the Curtis Publishing Company, 433-435 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Illustrated American for the week ending June 27th is replete with varied excellence, and contains many timely articles, which in addition to the completeness of illustration, possess characteristic strength and interest. Two new features add to the attractiveness of this publication. One is social in its nature, and is designed to present such a picture of society in the United States
