A CATHOLIC SOVEREIGN.

The Empress of Austria has written Queen Margaret of Italy a touching letter, setting forth the reasons which prevented the Emperor Francis Joseph and herself from returning at Rome the visit of the King and Queen of Italy to Vienna. The Empress declares that neither her husband-nor herself could persuade themselves to visit them in the King and Queen to Italy to Vienna. The Empress declares that neither her husband-nor herself could persuade themselves to visit them in the Kiernal city, and she calls the attention of the Italian Queen to the misfortunes which have fallen on all who have interfered with the rights and independence of the Pope. After having spoken of the persecution of Napoleon I, practiced on the Sovereign Pontiff in 1869, he adds:

"The fact is that after numerous and terrible reverses the Pope was restored to Rome, and Napoleon relegated first to the Isle of Elbe, and afterwards to that of St. Helena. And his son! The unfortunate King of Rome! He died in this very place from which I write. At eight minutes past five on the 22nd of July, 1823, he died here in the very chamber of the palace of Schoenbrun that his father had occupied in the days of his triumph, in this palace where he had in auger and haughtiness dictated the decree of the 17th of May, 1859, which despoted the Pope of his dominions and made himself master of the city of Rome. I cannot think of these horrible coincidences without being filled with dismay. I know well that certain public men laugh at all his, that they call it an accident, but to is accident, my dear sister Margaret, has been mournfully repeated in our own days. There was, as your Manzoni wou dsay, a third Napoleon who in 1856, although there had been born thim a son, began at the congress of Paris the war against austria and the Pope, for Austria and the Pope

These are the words of a Catholic princess, and clearly show what is thought in Catholic circles of the present position of the Holy Father. The letter reflects knoor on the Empress Elizabeth. Her sentiments, so nobly expressed, remind one of the best days of the ages of fatth. With such a noble out-poken Catholic mother, the house of Hapsburg may well hope for long years of prosperity and security. The rights of monarchs to their thrones was never so gravely injured as it was by the spoliation of Rome and the dethronement of the Pope. It can never be re-asserted in a manner so just and so emphaticrs by the restoration to the Supreme Pouriff of that which is his own.—Catholic Record.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS COURT.

Waseingron, March 6 .- It is estimated that the 2,200 cases pending before the Al2buma Cisims Court aggregate nearly $14,000,000, without interest. If judgments were swarded for the amount claimed, the interest would probably run the aggregate up to $20,000,000. It will thus be seen that the Court will have no difficulty in disposing of the undistributed remainder of the Geneva Award, about $9,500,800. The Court has under consideration two important questions: First, whether, in certain cases, awards shall be made upon a gold or currency basis, having reference to war premiums; second, especially Bitters or preparations with the what, within the meaning of the Aur creating
