

A CALGARY MIRACLE.

THE MOST WONDERFUL CASE EVER RECORDED IN THE NORTHWEST.

Miss Lela Cullen is Rescued from What Her Physicians and Friends Thought to be Her Deathbed.

Winnipeg Tribune.

CALGARY, N. W. T. Oct. 20, 1892.—For some time past the residents of this town have been deeply interested in the case of Miss Lela Cullen, a young lady, who had so nearly approached the portals of the great unknown, that her friends despaired of her recovery, and who has now fully, indeed almost miraculously, regained her health and strength. Having read on various occasions in the Tribune the particulars of what appeared to be miraculous cures, your correspondent determined to investigate the case of Miss Cullen, and now sends you the particulars fully believing that you will be justified in giving them widest publication.

When your correspondent visited the residence of Mrs. Cullen, the mother of the young lady, he was courteously received, and in reply to his enquiries as to whether she would be willing to give the facts of her daughter's wonderful recovery, for publication for the benefit of other sufferers, Mrs. Cullen readily assented. "My daughter's first illness," said Mrs. Cullen, "was in June 1890, when she was taken with the measles. At that time she was seventeen years of age, tall, fine looking, and exceedingly healthy, weighing about 140 pounds. All the family took the measles, and all got over them without trouble, except Lela. Her case from the first baffled all the ordinary remedies used for that disease, and as the measles did not come out, a physician was called in. He administered remedies, but with no better results, and her case seemed to baffle the physician's skill. After a few weeks my daughter began to improve somewhat, but did not regain her former strength, and six weeks after she was first taken ill, her face, neck, and limbs broke out in blotches. The doctor was again called in, and said it was the measles getting out of her system, and that she would soon be all right again. The doctor's statements were not verified, however, for not only did my daughter not improve, but she gradually grew worse. Soon after she began to swell, first the feet, then the limbs, breast and face became puffed up. Another doctor was called in and he pronounced her trouble dropsy, resulting from the measles. The doctor attended her all winter, and although he seemed to do all in his power for her, she gradually became weaker and weaker. She did not eat, and tonics failed to improve her appetite, and she gradually grew weaker she lost her courage, lost that hope of life that was fast slipping away. In the spring, the doctor's medicine having done her no good, was discontinued, and instead he gave her preparations of beef, iron and wine, hypophosphites, eggs, cream, etc. In fact, stimulants of this kind had to be constantly forced upon her to keep her alive and I gave up all hope of her recovery, and in my misery waited for her death. She was now so weak that she could not walk across the floor, and in order to rest her we would lift her to a chair, where she would sit for a short while when we would again place her in bed. She was slowly but surely dying before our eyes, and nothing we could do for her was of avail. She was still puffed up, and nothing the doctor's could do would no longer support her and she could only sit up a very short time each day. In this condition she lingered on until August, 1891, some fifteen months after she was first taken ill, and while we were sorrowfully awaited what seemed the inevitable end, a ray of hope came. I read in a newspaper of a remarkable cure from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and while I feared that I had heard of this wonderful medicine too late, I hoped almost against hope and sent to the headquarters of the company, at Brockville, Ont., for a supply. At this time, Lela was not able to be removed from bed; her weight was reduced to 90 pounds, and her lips were blue. You will thus see how little hope there appeared for her when she began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After she had taken the first box, although there was no visible improvement, she thought she were doing her good, and her spirits began to rise. At the end of the second box, I could notice the improvement, and Lela was very hopeful, and felt life was returning to her again. After she had been taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for a month, she was able to get up, and by October she was so well that she could superintend work about the house. She still continued taking the Pills, and rapidly recovered all her old time health, strength and spirits. I cannot tell you," continued Mrs. Cullen, "how deeply grateful I am for the wonderful medicine that saved my daughter's life. You may be sure that both me and mine will always warmly recommend it, as we have every reason to do."

WHAT A PROMINENT DRUGGIST SAYS.

Your correspondent then called upon Mr. J. G. Templeton, the well-known druggist on Stephen avenue. In reply to an enquiry as to what he could tell me about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, Mr. Templeton replied: "What can I tell you, they are the most wonderful medicine I ever handled, I had experience with them in Ontario before coming out here, and in all my experience as a druggist, I never knew any medicine have such a wonderful demand, or give such great satisfaction. My experience here has been like my experience in Ontario, all who have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills speak in their praise, and if I were to tell you how many boxes I am selling here daily, you would be readily excused for being somewhat incredulous. If I am asked to recommend a medicine, I unhesitatingly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and my confidence in them has never been misplaced. I have already said the demand for Pink Pills is astonishing, and they invariably give the best satisfaction. I know this to be so from the statements of customers. I have sold here and in Ontario, thousands of boxes, and have no hesitation in recommending them as a perfect blood builder and nerve restorer, curing such diseases as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration and the tired feeling therefrom, the after-effects of la grippe, diseases depending on humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions, and are a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, and in the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, over-work or excesses of any nature."

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50 cts. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Bear in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form is trying to defraud you and should be avoided. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold make a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

"What are you crying about, my little man?" "Jimmy O'Brien licked me first an' then father licked me for letting Jimmy lick me, and then Jimmy licked me again for telling father, an' now I suppose I shall catch it again from father."—Life's Calendar

IRISH NEWS.

Sister Mary Frances Oliver has been appointed matron of the Skibbereen workhouse. Mr. James O'Neill has been unanimously elected chairman of the Kinsale town commissioners.

Mr. W. Baldwin was unanimously elected chairman of the Athy Town Commissioners on Oct. 25.

Mr. P. T. O'Brien, M. P., was unanimously elected chairman of the Nenagh Town Commissioners on the 25th ult.

Collections for the evicted tenants of Ireland will be taken up in all the parishes of County Westmeath during this month.

Mr. Patrick Gallagher, Jr., of Donegal and Ardloher, Glenties, has been appointed to the Commission of the Peace for County Donegal.

Father McCarthy, a curate of St. Mary's Church, Limerick, has been appointed pastor of the united parishes of Croagh and Kilkenny.

The death is announced of Mr. Dennis Devine, of Carra Castle. He was formerly a sergeant of the Royal Irish Constabulary, and was for many years county inspector's clerk in Wicklow, Dublin and Kildare.

Mr. John McDaid, of Tullyhonor, while returning home from the fair in Brockagh, lost his way on the mountains. His dead body was found on Oct. 21 wedged between two rocks and partly immersed in a stream within a quarter of a mile of his residence. His hands were crossed on his breast and his staff stuck up beside him.

A special meeting of the Royal Humane Society in London, on Oct. 22, handsome testimonials on vellum and parchment were awarded to Miss Olive Duffin, aged thirteen, who is the daughter of Mr. Adam Duffin, of Belfast. She saved Miss Frances Vaughan, at Donaghadee, County Down, on July 23, when the latter got out of her depth while bathing.

A meeting of the Irish Parliamentary party was held in Dublin on Oct. 21. There were present Messrs. Michael Davitt, John Dillon, Timothy Healy, William O'Brien, and Thomas Sexton. This resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That, in pursuance of the resolution of the committee on September 28 last, the National trustees are hereby instructed to open an Evicted Tenants' Fund at the Hibernian Bank, College Green, Dublin, all moneys received under the resolutions of the county conventions to be lodged to the credit of such fund, and all payments from such fund to be made to the evicted tenants, and for no other purpose as ordered by this committee from time to time."

Mr. William J. Doherty, J. P., of Dublin, has intimated to his Heathfield (Cloughaneely) tenants that he is prepared, on payment by them of half a year's rent, to cancel all outstanding rents and arrears and give them clear receipts. The full significance of this generous offer will be understood when it is stated that many of the tenants to whom those terms are made have not paid any rent for the past seven years. The small farmers in the mountains of Donegal and along the coast, accustomed though they are to misfortune, have not for the past decade faced a winter under such depressing conditions as the coming one. The potato crop is a great disappointment, and it is calculated that there is not a half an average yield. The corn crop is seriously damaged, and there is no price and no purchasers in the market for what little stock there is.

Mr. P. J. Kennedy, M. P. for North Kildare, has done a good stroke for the laborers of Trim Union by inducing the board to adopt the provisions of Dr. Tanner's Act and give a whole acre of land to laborers. This proposal was strenuously resisted by the Tory ex officio, but it was carried by 15 votes to 13. The arguments of the Conservatives, that the additional half acre would not be of any service to the laborer, was effectively disposed of by Mr. Kennedy, who showed that it would enable him to have a rotation of green crops and cereals, and to train up his boys with a knowledge of practical agriculture, thus fitting them to be skilled laborers and useful members of society.

For two Sundays the people of Portlinton have been afflicted with a sample of the open-air preaching which has been the source of so much disorder at Arklow. About 3 o'clock each Sunday (the time when the Catholics are going to Vespers) the quiet of the town has been disturbed by the psalm-singing and loud-toned oratory of a pair of these "Journeyman soul-savers." But happily, the good sense of the people has been shown by their payings no heed to these would be disturbers of the peace. At Benediction, on Sunday evening, Oct. 23, Father Burke exhorted the people to ignore their presence, no matter how much their feelings might be hurt, as he said he could not account for their adopting this role except that some persons behind the scenes had imported them for the purpose of creating a disturbance and thereby being able to point to it as an instance of what Protestants might expect if the Irish people had Home Rule. He told his flock on no account to offer any insult to them, even though, as Catholics, they might feel insulted by these disturbers of religious harmony. It is strange why at this particular time the quiet of a country town where Catholics and Protestants are living in harmony should be endangered by what is plainly an attempt to get up religious dissension. It seems as if Father Burke hit the nail on the head when he attributed the cause to the sinister designs of some enemies of the country.

VIENNESE BAZAAR

Our Xmas Department is now open, and contains a very large assortment of Austrian Novelties in Glass, China, Celluloid and Majolica. The distinguishing feature of these wares is high-class and artistic appearance combined with almost incredible cheapness. Vienna is associated in history with "the blaze and pageantry of kings," and the chaste and cultured taste of the Viennese is acknowledged and copied in the most exclusive circles of European fashion. How dexterously they can apply this delicate instinct to matters of decoration and ornamentation in the industrial arts, and at what little cost, is exhibited by hundreds of our beautiful Vases and Jars. Just how exquisite in workmanship, and unique in design, these really are, however, can only be fully realized by inspection! We advise an early visit from intending purchasers before the collection is too much broken up.
