In the United States, as at home it is admitted that at least one third of the army and sary are Catholics. Tet the whole of the Military and Naval Chaplains have always been Protestant; and the English articles of war having been adopted without, alteration on this subject this Catholics have been and still are competed to jend Protestant service. The only departure from the system; was that in the Rexican war of 1845, the Catholic soldiers having been flogged for refusing Dataph the Protestant service. President Polk actual the interest two Jesuits as Catholic chaplains to the army of General Taylor.

THE CASE OF

The Orwego Palladium contains a notice, written by a correspondent, of a lecture delivered in that city by a famale medium. He says it was composed of every possible combination, of unmeaning and high sounding polysyllables, interpersed with circular gestures; and garnished with pulsations, and acmes and elements, and throbbings; and essences, and outgrowings, eliminations, and argute spiritualistic cogposcences. It was an attonuated concatenation of mellifinous syllabic accentuation, projected tangentially from chaotic nonentity, and pulsating in a harmonious circumbendibus. It was, in plain English

A FIRST-RATE NOTICE OF A BRIDEGROOK .-- A Western exchange paper publishes the following, mar-riage notice:—" Married, in Seymour, on Sunday, the 4th inst., by Esquire Carter, Mr. Geo. Walfrom. (better known as old Walfrom the tanner,) to Mrs. Frederick Miller, a charming widow of twenty-two. Old Walfrom is the ugliest and filthiest man in the United States, without any exception, and how, with all his ugliness, he got the widows consent to have him. a mystery to us. We can assure the bride that she need not be afraid of any woman running away with Walfrom, for she is the only woman that has been within ten feet of bim for twenty years."

MRS. PARTINGTON ON WEDDING .- 'I like to 'tend weddings, said Mrs. Partington, as she came back from one in church, and hung her shawl up, and replaced her bonnet in the long preserved handbox.—
I like to see the young people come together with a promise to love cherish, and nourish each other.— But it is a solemn thing, is matrimony—a very solemn thing,—where the minister comes into the chancery, with his surplus on, and goes throuh the coremony of making them man and wife, for it isn't every husband that turns out to be a man. I declare I never shall forget when Paul put the nup-tual ring on my finger, and said, 'with all my goods I thee endow.' He used to keep a dry good store then, and I thought he was going to give me all there was in it. I was young and simple then, and did not know till afterwards, that it meant only one calico dress a year.

SOR. MORSESAUVAL

INDIAN ROOT PILLS.
DR. MURSE, IN INVISES INDIAN ROOT PILLs has spent the greater part of his life in travelling having hister Europe Lais, and Africa as well as North Arreview has spent three years among the Indians of during the light was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first distant this way that the Indian Root Pills were first distant to the Indian Root Pills covered. Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all dispuses arise from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD—that our strongth health and life de-pended upon this vital fluid.

When the various passages become clogged, and do not act in perfect harmony with the different functions of the body, the blood loses its action, becomes thick, corrupted and diseased; thus causing all pains sickness and distress of every name; our strength is exhausted, our health we are deprived of, and if nature is not assisted in throwing off the stagnant humors, the blood will become choked and cease to act, and thus our light of life will forever be blown out. How important then that we should keep the various passages of the body free and open. And how pleasant to us that we have it in our power to put a medicine in your reach, namely Morse's Indian Root Pill's manufactured from plants and roots which grow around the mountainous cliffs in Nature's garden, for the health and recovery of diseased man. One of the roots from which these Pills are made is a Sudorific, which opens the porce of the skin, and assists Nature in throwing out the finer parts of the corruption withn. The second is a plant which is an Expectorant, that opens and unclose the passage to the lungs, and thus, in a soothing manner, performs its duty by throwing off phlegm, and other humors from the lungs by copious spitting. The third is a Diurctic, which gives ease and double strength to the kidneys thus encouraged, they draw large amounts of impurity from the blood, which is then thrown out bountifully by the urinary or water passage, and which could not have been discharged in any other way .--The fourth is a Cathartic, and accompanies the other properties of the Pills while engaged in purifying the blood; the coarser particles of impurity which cannot pass by the other outlets, are thus taken up and conveyed off in great quantities by the bowels. From the above, it is shown that Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills not only enter the stomach, but become united with the blood, for they find way to every part, and completely rout out and cleanse the system from all impurity, and the life of the body, which is the blood, becomes perfectly healthy; consequently all sickness and pain is driven from the system, for they cannot remain when the body becomes so pure and clear. The reason why people are so distressed when sick and why so many die, is because they do not get a medicine which will pass to the afflicted parts, and which will open the natural passages for the disease to be cast out; hence, a large quantity of food and other matter is lodged, and the stomach and intes-tines are literally overflowing with the corrupted mass; thus undergoing disagreeable fermentation, constantly mixing with the blood, which throws the corrupted matter through every vein and artery, until life is taken from the body by disease. Dr Morse's PILLS have added to themselves victory upon victory, by restoring millions of the sick to blooming health and happiness. Yes, thousands who have been racked or tormented with sickness, pain and anguish, and whose feeble frames, have been scorched by the burning elements of raging fever, and who have been brought, as it were, within a step of the silent grave, now stand ready to testify that they would have been numbered with the dead, had it not been for this great and wonderful medicine, Morse's Indian Root Pills. After one or two doses had been taken, they were astonished, and absolutely surprised in witnessing their charming effects. Not only do they give immediate case and strength, and take away all sickness, pain and anguish but they at once go to work at the foundation of the disease, which is the blood. Therefore, it will be shown, especially by those who use these Pills, that they will so cleanse and purify, that disease—that deadly enemy—will take its flight, and the flush of youth and beauty will again return, and the prospect of a long and happy life will cherish and brighten your days.

Will be ready on the 20th of March, (NEW AND REVISED EDITION,)

THE LIFE OF ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, by the Count de Montalembert. The Life, translated by Mary Hacket, and the Introduction, by Mrs. Sadlier. 12 mo., of 427 pages, with a fine steel engraving. Cloth, 5s; cloth gilt, 7s 6d.

The first edition of Three Thousand having all been sold, and there being many calls for the work, we have put to press a New Edition. The translation has been read over with the French copy and carefully corrected.

Of the merits of the work, we can safely say, that no biggraphy ever issued from the American Press equals it—11's as interesting as a romance.

The Press have been unanimous in praise of the first edition. We give extracts from a few of them : "The book is one of the most interesting, instructive, and edifying that have been produced in our times, and every Catholic will read it with devout thankfulness to the Almighty God, that he has been pleased to raise up, in this faithless age, a layman who can write so edifying a work. It is marked by rare learning, fine artistic skill, and correct taste; and breathes the firmest faith and the most tender piety. His work is as refreshing as springs of water in a sandy desert: Let every one who can read purchase and read this beautiful Life of one of the most lovely and most favored Saints that have ever been youchsafed to hallow our earthly pilgrimage."

-Brownson's Review. "The whole introduction shows the hand of a master, and it loses nothing in Mrs. Sadlier's racy and elegant English. It enhances the merit of the work, which, in the Dublin edition, was published without this essential preface. Of the Life itself, we cannot speak too highly. The exquisite character of the dear St. Elizabeth, (as the good Germans have at all times styled her), is brought out with a clearness, a tenderness, and a vigor, which bring tears from the heart. We do not think there is any book of the kind in English, at all to be compared to this Life of Saint Elizabeth."—American Celt.

"We might say much in praise of the narrative and Life of St. Elizabeth, attending which, from the beginning to the end, is a charm which cannot fail to attract and secure the attention of the reader, did not the well known abilities of this distinguished author render it unnecessary.... We cheerfully re-commend the work to our renders."—Pittsburg Catholic. "This magnificent work of the great French Tribune of true liberty, has at last been translated into English. The name of its Author is a sufficient guarantee for the value of the work. Montalembert is one of the lights of the age—a man who combines rare power of intellect, with unswerving devotion to the cause of liberty and the Church. Let every one who desires to study the spirit of the Middle Ages, resd this book."—Catholic Telegraph.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

" Griffins Works.—They are interspersed with scenes of the deepest pathos, and the most genuine humor-at one moment we are convulsed with laughter, at the next affected to tears. We heartily recommend Gerald Griffins Works to the attention of the American public, and predict for them an immense popularity."—Sunday Despatch.

the Collegiens, when it was first published, with a pleasure we have never forgotten, and which we have found increased at every repeated perusal. Iroland has produced many geniuses, but farely one, upon the whole superior to Gerald Griffin."—Brownson's

"Whoever wishes to read one of the most passionate and pathetic novels in English literature will take with him, during the summer vacation. The Collegians, by Gerald Griffin. The picture of Irish character and manners a half a century since in The Collegians, is masterly, and the power with which the fond, impetuous, passionate, thoroughly Celtic nature of Hardress Cregan is drawn, evinces rare genius. Griffin died young, but this one story, if nothing else of his, will surely live among the very best novels of the time. It is full of incident, and an absorbing interest allures the reader to the end, and leaves him with a melted heart and moistened eye.

-Pulnam's Monthly. "We have now before us four volumes, the commencement of a complete edition of Gerald Griffin's works, embracing the 'Collegians' and the first series of his 'Munster Tales.' The nationality of these tales, and the genius of the author in depicting the mingled levity and pathos of Irish character, have rendered them exceedingly popular. The style in which the series is produced is highly creditable to the enterprise of the American publishers, and we are free to say that the volumes are worthy of being placed in our libraries, public or private, alongside of Irving, Cooper, or Scott."—Hunt's Merchant's Magazine.
