Mercantile Summary.

THE Mayor and Treasurer of Quebec city, with one of the aldermen, left on Saturday for England, to negotiate a loan of $200,000 for municipal purposes.

THE house of Linton & Cooper, Montreal, whose manufactures of boots and shoes are seen in most parts of the Dominion, have dissolved. Mr. Linton continues the business under the new style of James Linton & Co.

SMUGGLING silks on an enormous scale is the ground of indictments presented last week by the Grand Jury of the New York Circuit Court against several merchants, among whom are the eminent firm of H. B. Claflin & Co., five members of which appeared and gave bail for $20,000 each.

At a Coroner's inquest John Small was found guilty of setting fire to his grist mill in Tara, with intent to defraud the Waterloo, Gore District Mutual, Hastings, and Western Fire Insurance Companies, the Merchants' Bank of Canada, the Bank of Hamilton, and others. He has been committed for trial.

AN Ogdensburg despatch states that the well-known Northern Transportation Company's fleet of twenty propellers, formerly plying from thence to Chicago with passengers and freight, but which have this season been idle because of trouble between New York and Vermont railways, the latter of which controlled them, are to resume their trips at once. This may be taken also as indicating a more hopeful condition of shipping interests on the lakes for the Fall.

FRAUD on the revenue is alleged against a wholesale liquor dealer in Montreal, on the testimony of a discharged employee of the customs, who asserts that the private bond on the premises of this merchant was tampered with, and large casks of wines and spirits were surreptitiously emptied of their contents without duty being paid. The charge is being investigated by the Ottawa Government.
