BRITISH COLUMBIA "REALTORS" AT SPOKANE CONVENTION.

The Vancouver Real Estate Exchange, which is affiliated with the Interstate Realty Association, which covers the Provinces of British Columbia and Alberta and the States of Washington, Oregon, Montana and Idaho, sent a delegation to Spokane at the Convention held there for three days in July. From Vancouver went the President, R. Kerr Houlgate, Lt.-Col. Dorrell, H. R. Budd, A. G. Dalzell, A. McC. Creery, J. B. Johnson, A. F. Lauder and the Secretary, Frank Hoole. The Victoria Exchange joined in this convention and sent their President, A. Carmichael, Messrs. C. T. Cross, A. R. Wolfenden, A. Lineham, R. Power, F. Landsberg, P. R. Brown, J. Bridgman, C. Holmes. Several of the members of both associations were accompanied by their wives.

The Convention was entirely successful and the members were kept busy the whole of the three days attending conferences on many important subjects of interest to realtors and the public generally, such as Licence Law, Insurance, Taxation, Good Roads, Town Planning, which was ably given by Mr. Dalzell of Vancouver, Logged off Lands, Rentals and Rent Profiteering, Reclamation of Desert Lands, City Cleanliness and Beautification, and several other important matters. Over 300 delegates registered and many were accompanied by their wives.

The Convention was held in the Davenport Hotel, which ably took care of everything. One of the interesting events was a five minutes contest by representatives from twelve cities in which each representative gave reasons in that short space of time why his own city was the best in the Pacific North West. This cup went to Portland by a slight margin over the Vancouver representative, Col. Dorrell, who ran Portland so close that he was specially mentioned for his able address. The next Convention is to be held at Tacoma, and it is expected Vancouver will get it in 1922.
