

UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO

(including Renison College)

1. New degree

Renison College has introduced a B.A. degree programme in International Studies, available in Honours and General course. It is organized around core courses in History, Economics, Geography and Political Science, including western and non-western areas. It is especially designed to encourage study of Asia, Africa and Latin America. Courses offered at the University of Waterloo are open to students in the programme.

2. CoursesAdd

Comparative Foreign Policy	G
The Third World - Comparative and International	U
British Government and Politics	U
Japanese Politics	U
International Politics; an introduction (now a full course)	U
Theory and Practice of International Politics (now a full course)	U
Contemporary Socialist and Communist thought	U
Introduction to International Law	U
Selected Issues in International Politics	U
War and Resolution	U
International Trade and Finance	U (Econ.)