Availability of the NAFTA Errata Table

The NAFTA Legal Text, formally signed on December 17, 1992, and the NAFTA Tariff Schedule of Canada of the same date were made available to the public last December.

In the process of proofreading in order to authenticate the text as required by the Agreement, the three governments identified errata. The errata are now also available for public information.

For those who have the December 17 version of the NAFTA Legal Text, the errata table can be obtained free of charge in English or French from:
