

point and a hoarder of intelligence. The creating of mechanisms and clear lines of communication within DPKO and elsewhere for the insertion and dissemination of intelligence should increase not decrease the information gathering usefulness of the FC and other field staff.