

peaceful, prosperous, and just. We have it in our power to build such a world.

We must build it nation by nation, individual by individual.

We are encouraged by recent events and the role that the UN has played.

Let us move from strength to strength for all the peoples of the world.

Thank you, Mr. President.