

12.15 P.M. - We leave the station at 12.15 P.M. and travel westward along the coast of the Gulf of California. The road follows the coast line for about 10 miles, then turns inland through the desert. The road is rough and rocky, and the landscape is arid and desolate.

12.45 P.M. - We stop at a small town called San Jose del Cabo. The town has a few houses and a church. There is a small market where we buy some supplies.

PART II

CANADA'S TAX COVENANT AND THE CANADIAN TAX CODE

12.55 P.M. - We continue westward along the coast. The road is rough and rocky, and the landscape is arid and desolate.

1.15 P.M. - We stop at a small town called La Paz. The town has a few houses and a church. There is a small market where we buy some supplies.

1.30 P.M. - We continue westward along the coast. The road is rough and rocky, and the landscape is arid and desolate.

CANADA'S TAX COVENANT AND THE CANADIAN TAX CODE

1.45 P.M. - We continue westward along the coast. The road is rough and rocky, and the landscape is arid and desolate.

2.15 P.M. - We continue westward along the coast. The road is rough and rocky, and the landscape is arid and desolate.

2.30 P.M. - We continue westward along the coast. The road is rough and rocky, and the landscape is arid and desolate.

2.45 P.M. - We continue westward along the coast. The road is rough and rocky, and the landscape is arid and desolate.

3.15 P.M. - We continue westward along the coast. The road is rough and rocky, and the landscape is arid and desolate.