

was still behind the bars at the Stoney Mountain penitentiary. I asked the minister if it was true that petitions had been received asking for the release of Kelly. I received from my hon. friend an answer which makes me believe that before the general election is over Mr. Kelly will be scot free in Manitoba. In order that the public may know what kind of a game is being played, not only with politics, but with such a sacred thing as justice I shall move:

That all the words after the word "that" be struck out and the following substituted:

Bill No. 97, an Act to amend the Criminal Code respecting Jurors, be read this day six months.

House divided on the amendment of Hon. Mr. Lemieux, that the Bill be read this time six months hence, which was declared lost on the following division:

	(St. Hyacinthe),

Mr. MACDONALD: I thought my hon. friend from Colchester (Mr. Stanfield) was in the House. I was paired with the hon. member, and I desire to withdraw my vote.

Mr. MCKENZIE: I was paired with the hon. gentleman from Lunenburg (Mr. Stewart). Had I voted I would have voted for the amendment.

Mr. DAVIDSON: I was paired with the hon. gentleman from South Cape Breton (Mr. Carroll). Had I voted I would have voted against the amendment.

Mr. CLEMENTS: I was paired with the hon. gentleman from Moosejaw (Mr. Knowles). Had I voted I would have voted against the amendment.

Mr. BRADBURY: I was paired with the hon. gentleman from Dauphin (Mr. Cruise). Had I voted I would have voted against the amendment.

Mr. A. K. MACLEAN: I was paired with the hon. gentleman from Queens Shelburne (Mr. McCurdy). I did not know he was in the House. I should not have voted.

Mr. DOHERTY: If the measure of necessity for explanation be the extent of misunderstanding existing then most assuredly hon. gentlemen on the other side have demonstrated that explanation of this Bill was necessary. If it had not been for that extraordinary misunderstanding which their speeches have evidenced I would have thought that explanation was not necessary. It is said that in the tail is the poison. My hon. friend from Rouville (Mr. Lemieux) was pleased to be
