

IX.

The Respondent shall, within five days from the service of the Petition, file at the Office of the Prothonotary a written appearance signed by him or his Attorney, and a written election of domicile shall be made and filed by the said Respondent or his Attorney, in the same manner as required of the Petitioner, by the last preceding rule : and in default of his so doing the office of the said Prothonotary shall be deemed to be his domicile for all the purposes of the Petition.

X.

The Petitioner or Respondent may, at any time after the delay above mentioned, on leave previously obtained from the Court or the Judge, appear by Attorney who shall forthwith file an appearance and an election of domicile at the Prothonotary's Office, where afterwards service of documents may be legally effected.

XI.

The Prothonotary shall keep a book or books at his office in which he shall enter all the elections of domicile made and filed at his office under the present rules, which books shall be open to inspection by any person during office hours.

XII.

In case of evasion of service, the affixing in a conspicuous place in the office of the Prothonotary of the Court, a notice of the Petition having been presented, stating the Petitioner, the prayer, and the fact that money has been paid into Court as security under the Act, shall be deemed equivalent to personal service, if so ordered by a Judge.
