

TWO NEW FACES IN FIRST WARD

Ex-Controller W. P. Hubbard and A. E. Walton Elected by Substantial Majorities.

ROBBINS HEADS POLL

Ald. Sanderson Was Fourth Man, While Orr and Britton Polled Small Votes.

Ward One—the far eastern section of the city—elected two new men to the council yesterday. Ex-Controller Hubbard, who has been out of the civic ring for a few years, and Albert Edward Walton, a novice in municipal affairs, were elected by substantial majorities. Ald. W. D. Robbins, who sat in the council for several months, was re-elected and headed the polls. W. J. Sanderson, one of the old members, was defeated, landing in fourth place. The two new aldermen, Hubbard and Walton, succeeded ex-Ald. Sanderson and ex-Ald. Hilton. The latter did not enter the contest this year.

The three winners were always ahead in the day's polling, and the final count showed comparatively small margins in their total vote. All obtained over 400 votes and none reached 600. The lowest vote was polled by Frank Britton, who got only 602, he being in the bottom of the heap, in sixth place.

The following was the result:
W. D. ROBBINS..... 2958
A. E. WALTON..... 2690
W. P. HUBBARD..... 2611
W. J. SANDERSON..... 1935
W. E. ORR..... 1808
Frank Britton..... 602
A. E. Walton, once a pupil in the medicine business of Dr. Hastings, M. H. O., is a real east ender. He was born in Scarborough in 1869, and for 27 years lived, and was educated, built up a big business as a druggist, all east of Parliament street.

Ald. Walton is another sample of "new blood" successful on the first attempt in civic affairs. He is not a politician, being independent in his views, and is well-known as an ardent amateur sportsman. He founded the Q. C. B. C. and is a grand bowler. He attends the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Walton is a strong believer in all the bylaws and is a "million" city

SECOND WARD HAS TWO NEW ALDERMEN

Morley Wickett Heads Poll and Risk Is Second by Large Majorities.

ALD. ROWLAND IS THIRD

Bell Polled More Votes Than the Fifth and Sixth Men Combined on His First Attempt.

In ward two Morley Wickett, a new man, headed the polls, with Risk, another new man, second, and Ald. Rowland returned in third place. The other candidates, Bell, Beavis and Henry, fell considerably below the winning men, while Bell's total was more than the combined votes of the last two.

The annexation of North Toronto did not affect the result in ward two as many had anticipated. H. H. Bell's record as councillor in the town and his solid support in the town's last election was believed by his friends to have sufficient strength to make his running sure. The ward, however, expressed its feeling with regard to "new blood" and returned in the first two places men who have not yet graced the city council. Dr. Risk made a strong run. It was his third and "lucky" strike for the honors. Ald. Rowland, the only old member to seek re-election, enters upon his fourth year. His total vote from the 48 subdivisions of the ward showed him only a few hundred votes behind the newer men.

The result of the ballot was as follows:
WICKETT..... 3127
RISK..... 2839
ROWLAND..... 2605
BELL..... 1663
Beavis..... 787
Henry..... 842

Dr. Charles A. Risk stepped up one from his 1912 vote and into the city council. He ran third this year, fourth last. The new alderman has worked hard for his new honor. He is strong and hardy in all the city improvements embodied in the bylaws. In politics, a Conservative, Dr. Risk is also prominent in the fraternal society world. He came to Toronto from Lambton County, where he was born in 1859. Some 27 or 28 years ago he began studying as a dental student. He is a member of All Saints' Anglican Church.

David Bell Beat Him For the Third Place by Ten Votes After a Hard Fight.

BURGESS IS SECOND MAN

Ald. Rawlinson Headed the Poll After One Year's Work in Council—The Figures.

Sam McBride met his Waterloo yesterday. One of Ward Three's representatives for seven years, the greatest talker in municipal politics and the most talked about man in the council, was defeated by ten votes by a novice, David Bell, a Yonge street grocer. Not until the last subdivision was heard from was the contest between McBride and Bell decided. Ex-Ald. McBride had a lead of 16 votes, with 51 out of 54 subdivisions reported. In the last three the tables turned and he was rejected by a ten-vote margin.

Ald. Marmaduke Rawlinson, who has sat in the council one year, and was formerly a member of the board of education, headed the polls. Two new men will be his colleagues this year, Ald. A. E. Burgess and David Bell. Sam McBride's defeat and Alfred Maguire's promotion to the board of control a few months ago, made the two vacancies for these men. Out of the seven contestants, Henry Winberg polled ed the lowest vote with 320. The highest was obtained by Ald. Rawlinson with 2666.

The following was the result:

A. E. Burgess made a success of his first entry into civic politics by dint of systematic, business-like efforts. Of course he has always taken a keen interest in civic affairs and is a prominent member of civic associations.

Two or three years ago Mr. Burgess, who lives at 18 Dundonald street, retired from the manufactured jewelry business and now declares he is in a position to devote all his time to the city.

He was born in Guelph 45 years ago, is a Conservative and attends St. Paul's Anglican Church.

ward two as alderman by a vote far in excess of that of his nearest competitor, is of the type of man who has a deep and academic knowledge of reaches the city council. Besides being a student of civic problems, he has the learning of a professor, he has a firm grasp of business principles. Managing director of the case-ket firm of Wickett & Craig, and director of a couple of other companies, Ald. Wickett is a graduate of Toronto University and took his Ph.D. degree at Leipzig.

He is prominent in the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and the board of trade. In politics he is a Conservative.

SAME ALDERMEN IN FOURTH WARD

Wanless, Weston and McMurrich Go Back Again, Having Satisfied Their Constituents.

WANLESS HEADS POLL

No new representatives of ward four will be seen in the council chamber this year. Ald. Wanless, Weston, McMurrich, the old guard, were re-elected in the order named. Ald. Wanless headed the polls with a majority of slightly over 200 over Ald. Weston and nearly 500 over Ald. McMurrich. Except the cures which came early in the evening, it did not look as though the ward four combination would be weakened. Both R. D. McLeod and Dr. John Shayne looked dangerous at one time, but toward the end they became also rans. Mr. McLeod finished in fourth place with 1633 votes as against 2337 polled by Ald. McMurrich, who finished in third or the last position of the winners. Dr. Shayne was only 80 votes behind Mr. McLeod.

Ald. McMurrich enters upon his 17th year in the council, he sharing the honors as an old-timer with Ald. John Dunn. Ald. McMurrich's first year in council was in 1891, when he was elected a representative of the old St. George's Ward. He sat for ward four for nine years afterwards, or until 1902. In 1908 he went back to the council as a representative of ward four and he has been there ever since. Ald. Wanless had served three years in the council and Ald. Wanless is beginning his second. A fairly large vote was polled by the result:

JOHN WANLESS..... 2801
GEORGE WESTON..... 2583
JOHN McMURRICH..... 2337
R. D. McLeod..... 1633
Dr. John Shayne..... 1558

A WONDERFUL DEVICE

Burroughs Adding Machines a Great Assistance in Compiling Election Results.

The public are indebted to the Burroughs adding machine for the promptness by which they received the returns in the municipal election yesterday. The Burroughs Company graciously placed some fifteen machines at the disposal of the Toronto newspapers, who are under the direction of Alex. C. Lewis to cooperate in obtaining the returns as they became known and giving them out at once to the public who congregated in front of the different newspaper offices, where bulletins were played by stenographers. Not only was the general public able to know the result of the voting at each subdivision at once, but the work done by the Burroughs adds left no suspicion as to accuracy. Burroughs adding machines have been employed by compiling returns at all elections held in Toronto and other large centres for several years now, and one is moved to wonder how, with the growth of such a city as Toronto and the consequent rapid increase in the number of voters, the accurate returns could be furnished to the people in reasonable time without the aid of the most indispensable mechanical adder.

NO SOLID THREE IN FIFTH WARD

J. W. Meredith Defeated R. H. Graham, Who Served the Ward For Sixteen Years.

DUNN AND MAY RETURN

Majority For Meredith, Who Headed the Poll, Was Seventeen and Recount May Follow.

With the defeat of Ald. R. H. Graham yesterday Ward Five's "solid three," consisting of Messrs. Dunn, Graham and May, was broken. After serving sixteen years in the council, four years of which he represented the old St. Stephen's Ward in the late '80s, Robert H. Graham was ousted from what looked like almost a life job. John Wesley Meredith will make his first appearance in the council chamber, having headed the polls in the Fifth Ward. Ald. John Dunn and Ald. Joseph T. V. May go back to their old chairs in the civic chamber. It was a rather sore blow to Ald. Graham to have been defeated after such a long servitude in the city council. He served in 1887, 1889, 1890 and 1891 as alderman for St. Stephen's Ward, now Ward Five, and for 12 years since then has represented Ward Five. In 1897 he sat on the board of control. His downfall might be described as "the passing of the Graham" for J. H. Graham, after many years in the city hall, was defeated for council two years ago.

John Wesley Meredith, who was one of the unsuccessful candidates last year, headed the polls with 2799 votes, a majority of 17 over Ald. Dunn, and

ALDERMAN MEREDITH.

55 over Ald. May. Mr. Graham was fourth with 2389, about 400 shy of what was necessary to win.

Ward Five simply refuses to allow Ald. John Dunn to be defeated. He has been in the civic ring for 17 years, being the oldest man in the council, and this year was the first in many that he did not head the list. But at that, he was only 13 votes from being on top of the heap. Ald. Dunn entered upon his 18th year in the council, having been elected in 1894. He was for years a trustee of the city and was a trustee of the city of Toronto.

The following was the result:
J. W. MEREDITH..... 2799
JOHN DUNN..... 2782
J. T. V. MAY..... 2741
Robt. H. Graham..... 2389
R. W. McKeachery..... 2181
A. G. Frost..... 1701

John Wesley Meredith is the man who put the "ex" before Ald. Graham, and also put himself on the top of the Ward Five heap. This new blood is out-and-out Toronto blood. Born here in 1881, he is a young man in 30 years, he attended Palmerston avenue school, and later he qualified for the civil service by passing the necessary examinations. He was for years a trustee of the city of Toronto, and was a trustee of the city of Toronto.

Dr. Conboy, chairman of the board, had the opportunity thru a rival being in the field in his ward, to place the various new movements the board has in hand before electors.

MAYBEE ON TOP IN SIXTH WARD

His Majority Was More Than a Thousand Over Aldermen McBrien and Spence.

AUSTIN A POOR FOURTH

Sunday Slide Question Played an Important Part in the Vote in This Ward.

Charles Henry Maybee, a new man in the municipal arena, headed the polls in ward six yesterday by a majority of over 1100 votes over Ald. Fred G. McBrien and Ald. David Spence, both of whom were re-elected. Ald. John A. Austin lasted only one year in the council, having this time made a very poor fourth.

The voting was unusually keen in this ward. It was seen by the first return from the subdivisions that Mr. Maybee would be elected. For a time Ald. McBrien led in the race, but when about half the polling booths had reported, Maybee started to gain ground and finally forged to the front which position thereafter he held. There were really only four men with a chance—Maybee, McBrien, Spence and Austin. The latter was practically 700 votes from making a third position, or being re-elected.

The Sunday slides question was considered to be the predominant issue in this ward. The three former aldermen noted against the use of the High Park slides on Sunday, and all save Austin were returned to the council. The new alderman, Charles Henry Maybee, in his campaign for election, did not commit himself on the question other than that he did not believe matters affecting Sunday legislation should come before the council, this body, he considered, not being the right one to deal with such matters. He did not say whether he wanted the slides open or closed.

Ald. McBrien and David Spence entered upon their third year in the council as representatives of the Parkdale ward.

The following was the result:
C. H. MAYBEE..... 4692
F. G. MCBRIEN..... 3568
DAVID SPENCE..... 3527
John A. Austin..... 2840
R. J. Clarke..... 2106
James E. Stewart..... 1139

Thomas E. Earls..... 452
Charles Henry Maybee's election in ward six, where he led the field, and his nearest rival by a thousand votes, was one of the most unexpected incidents of yesterday's polling. In his first attempt at civic honors he loomed up larger than any of his admirers had hoped. He has always taken a keen interest in civic politics, particularly as they affected Parkdale. He was born in Kingston, receiving an education under our local school system.

Ald. Maybee is a strong believer in the civic chamber and besides he has the necessary technical knowledge back of his belief to be a great help to the city in carrying the project thru to a successful conclusion. He is a cattle dealer by trade. In politics he is a staunch Liberal.

THANKS TO MR. LEWIS

The compiling of election returns in Toronto has been made comparatively simple by the adoption of a chory system, in which the city and its six daily newspapers each contribute to the immense amount of work involved, and thru this manner of co-operation succeeded in lessening the labor and reducing the time required almost to a minimum. Formerly each newspaper worked single-handed in the matter, and the results were not given to the public until several hours after the last subdivision had reported. The idea of joint effort was suggested when the Toronto papers faced the prospect of announcing to an anxious public the results of the voting on reciprocity. Happily, they decided on organizing a system which would ensure both accuracy and speed. Toronto has given a worthy example to other large centres where election returns are handled in the old way. Mr. Lewis has made Toronto's system practical and at the same time entirely efficient. The public who reap the benefit of it all, and are no doubt duly appreciative, owe no small debt of gratitude to Mr. Lewis.

BOTH MEN BACK IN WARD SEVEN

Ald. Anderson Increases His Strength and Majority Over Ald. Ryding, Who Falls Off Slightly.

WERE SAFELY ELECTED

Contest in the Far West Ward Was Not Spectacular and Vote Showed Very Small Gain.

Ward seven let in no new blood. Aldermen Ryding and Anderson are aldermen again and by a fairly decided vote that was numerically little greater than that of the previous election.

The field was small. There was no great outstanding feature of the contest to draw out the voters. Neither of the two aldermen had performed anything startling in their year in council. John A. Macdonald put up a fight that looked formidable, but there was not sufficient of underlying strength to pull him into a winning place.

Alexander J. Anderson, alderman, who is a barrister, increased both his lead and his vote, while Samuel Ryding went back a few votes.

This will be the second year in the city council for Ald. Ryding. Ald. Anderson has represented the seventh ward since it was created.

The vote was as follows:
A. J. ANDERSON..... 1112
S. RYDING..... 767
J. A. Macdonald..... 580

SUNDAY SLIDES WAS NOT AN ISSUE

Results of Election Do Not Indicate That People Took Too-bogganing on Sunday Seriously—Standing of Board of Control Is the Same on the Question.

It is difficult to say just what part the matter of Sunday slides took in the election, or just what is the attitude of the new council toward this matter. The board of control, numerically regarded, stands as it stood at the passing of the measure, three to two against the slides. There is this difference, that while at that time Mayor Geary would have let the people slide, Horation Hocken, the little man who now sits in the big chair, would look up the slides upon the Sabbath.

Geary has gone elsewhere to wrestle with other matters. Hocken, who as controller, voted to close the slides, has taken yet a higher place, while Alf. Maguire, who, as alderman, stood for ailing, has aid from public life via an unsuccessful attempt to retain the position given him by council. McCarthy and Foster, who would not let others slide, refused to slide themselves. O'Neill, who in council would have left the slides open has moved up to the board of control, and Tommy Church is still there to stand by him for slides.

Ald. McBride, the talking wonder, who slid so long as he might speak, has taken yet a higher place, while Alf. Maguire, who, as alderman, stood for ailing, has aid from public life via an unsuccessful attempt to retain the position given him by council.
