

...very serviceable to rateatchers
...taking up the business.
...eight or ten commissions of the peace, as private wars are set aside in which they were chiefly wanted. Not much the worse for wear, being only a little soiled with thumping oaths and arbitrary commitments. It is thought if they are not wanted any where else, they will do for exportation to the Cape of Good Hope, to serve to keep the Hottentots and Caffres in order, in case an exclusive company should get into the fur-trade there.

A variety of other curious articles to be mentioned in future advertisements. Apply to McRAVISH McKILLAWAY & Co.

P. S. We are exceedingly sorry to understand that the celebrated Dr. Catapult's carriage was completely overturned on Friday evening last by a SLEIGH; if this sleigh continues to run as rapidly as it bids fair for, we much fear that many others may be upset before it is stopped.

Printed and published by Dicky Gossip at the sign of the Teatable.

I am unavoidably compelled to postpone till next week the account of Mrs. EAST's ball, DR. CATAPULT's tragi-comedy, the operations at Fort Stark etc. The communications of NO-BODY and CASSANDRA will be availed of next number. ROB-ROY from La Prairie, will appear; and I accept his offer with many thanks, as any village or parish where I can have a foraging party must sooner or later come under my dominion. MACH-BETH's polite favour is acknowledged and will be attended to. TIMOTHY HICKINBOTTOM may rely that I will severely reprimand Count OLDJOSEPH in my next. L. L. M.

AMATEUR THEATRICALS. A few young gentlemen of the town propose to perform the tragedy of the REVENGE with the farce of LOVE A LA MODE, on Wednesday evening next the 13th March, at Mr. Roy's, New-Market. Admittance 5s. The proceeds to be applied to charitable purposes.