3. Yes.

Mr. FOSTER. A part of the question does not seem to be answered—the place of residence of each of these parties.

Mr. BRODEUR. The only one whose residence we have on record in the department is Mr. Falconer. We have not the addresses of the others.

Mr. FOSTER. Perhaps, then, that part of the question might stand.

Mr. BRODEUR. We have nothing in the department which shows the residence of these parties. In fact, the contract was made with Mr. Falconer alone, and he is the only man whose residence we know.

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE, 1907—EXPENDITURES OF CANADIAN GOVERNMENT.

Mr. FOSTER asked :

What were the expenditures of the Canadian government in connection with the Imperial Conference, 1907, and how were they distributed?

Hon. W. S. FIELDING (Minister of Finance) :

An appropriation of $8,000 was made and paid 'To provide for the expenses of the Prime Minister in connection with the Colonial Conference.'

A further appropriation of $16,000 was made 'To provide for the expenses of ministers in connection with the Colonial Conference,' from which the following payments have been made:—

• Sir Frederick Borden	$4,000
Hon. L. P. Brodeur	4,000

Total $8,000

WESTERN BLOCK EXTENSION.

Mr. FOSTER asked :

1. What was the total cost of the extension of the western block?

2. What was the total working space provided by the extension, and the total storing space, respectively?

3. Into how many working rooms was it divided, and how many clerks are provided for and now actually occupying these rooms?

Hon. WM. PUGSLEY (Minister of Public Works) :

1. $88,336.46.

2. Additional working space, 9,584 superficial feet, additional storerooms, corridors and staircases, 2,272 superficial feet.

3. Nine working rooms.

YUKON TELEGRAPH—RECEIPTS AND EXPENSES.

Mr. FOSTER asked :

1. What are the receipts and working expenses of the Yukon telegraph system from March 31, 1907, to date?

2. What was the expenditure on capital account?

Hon. WM. PUGSLEY (Minister of Public Works) :

1. Receipts, $52,725.13 ; working expenses, $136,188.85.

2. No expenditure on capital account during that period.

Mr. FOSTER. That is down to date? What date?

Mr. PUGSLEY. To to-day.

MARCONI COMPANY—PRESS BUSINESS.

Mr. FOSTER asked :

1. For what newspapers is the Marconi Company doing regular commercial press business as per minister's reply to question asked December 4, 1907?

2. Is it true that the New York 'Times' has a contract with the company for a service to the exclusion of Canadian newspapers?
