"In the study of these Tracts the reader will find fresh assurance that Christians are not followers of cunningly-devised fables. One can only wonder at the variety of lines of evidence that converge in one conclusion."

Evangelical Magazine.

"Many of the so-called scientific questionings of to-day are here well and briefly answered."—Christian.

"It is a volume which cannot be too widely known, and is likely to prove an important barrier to the inroads of false doctrine, heresy, and infidelity."

English Churchman.

"Nothing could be better than this collection of Tracts vindicating the statements of Revelation on the subject of man, and offering reliable arguments wherewith to meet prevalent objections. This distinctly valuable volume is calculated to prove of the greatest service to earnest inquirers, and to those who wish to have the Christian side put before them succinctly, and yet with sufficient fulness to afford a firm grasp of the arguments in support of revealed truth."—The Rock.

"The issue, in view of the negative aspects of modern thought, is altogether wise and timely."—Baptist Magazine.

"The R.T.S. have gathered up eight of their always valuable Present Day Tracts on Man, his age, origin, moral nature, and needs, and published them under the common title of Man in Relation to the Bible and Christianity. The title is a happy one, and the volume should be extremely useful just now."
