THE WEATHER OBSERVATORY, TORONTO, Aug. 27. —(8 p.m.)—Frost occurred this morn-ing in many parts of Saskatchewan and Alberta, but did not extend into Mani-toba. From the great lakes to the maritime provinces the weather has been fair, except that thunderstorms have occurred near Lake Ontarlo and in the Ottawa Valley. A tropical storm has appeared near the south Atlantic coast.

The young man's neck was broken. Sydney Rittiger was at the perform-ance with his flance, Miss Lulu Fish-er. Before entering the building, they had stopped at a jewlry store nearby, and Rittiger had bought the ring that was to have been used at their wed-ding. Both were killed.

Wilmer Lane, an employe of the Wilmer Lane, an employe of the Canonsburg Pottery, and a member of one of the volunteer fire companies, hastened to answer the alarm and was working at the pile of bodies at the entrance when he came upon the lifeless forms of his two children ly-ing beside his unconscious wife.

He struck McPeake on the back and ing beside his unconscious wife. Samuel Laneof Morganza, not know-ing that his son's family were at the theatre, had entered the building a short time before the alarm was given. He rushed towards the stairs and was making his way down when he saw a child almost under his feet. As he oped to pick her up, he recognized his granddaughter, but at that moment was caught in the mighty whirl she was swept out of his reach and killed. He was seriously hurt. It developed during to-day that there was no flash nor was there the slight-

Says She Broke Her Promise to Marry Him.

HOLLAND, Mich., Aug. 26 .- Angered, he says, because Grace Lyons of Chicago, his sweetheart, broke her promise of marrying him, Walter Hopper of Chicago and Philadelphia, attacked her on board the Steamer Puritan, forty-one miles out on the lake to-night, and tossed her overboard.

Her body has not been recovered. Hopper was arrested on arrival of the Puritan here. He said that the woman and he had been living together and were to be married in a few days. Hearing that she was leaving Chicago on the Puritan, Hopper sought out Miss Lyons on the boat and during a quarrel she told him the marriage was off. They were sitting on a box of freight on the lower deck. Hopper grabbed the girl and threw her overboard. She disappeared and never came up again. Hopper is 31 years old and the dead girl was 26.
