

Blue Ribbon
Ceylon Tea

TWENTY-FIRST YEAR

BOERS KEEP IN ORANGE RIVER COLONY

Have Broken the Railway in Twenty Places Between Bloemfontein and the Orange River and Committed Other Depredations.

Line Between Kimberley and Belmont Also Cut—Bombardment of the Canadian Artillery Died of Pretoria—Casualties Among the Dragons in the Belfast Fight.

London, Nov. 17.—The Boers, according to the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail, have broken the railway in 20 places between Bloemfontein and the Orange River, and the line was cut yesterday between Kimberley and Belmont.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

London, Nov. 17.—The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged. The Belfast gunners are practically besieged.

SECRET TREATY CONCLUDED
BETWEEN CHINA AND RUSSIA

Statements from Paris and Odessa Are to the Effect That Russia Has Permission to Occupy Manchuria—No Fresh News as to the Actual State of Affairs.

London, Nov. 17.—(3 a.m.)—Unconfirmed statements emanate from Paris and Odessa that a secret treaty has been concluded between Russia and China for the Russian occupation of Manchuria.

There is no fresh news this morning showing light on the actual situation. The Japanese Minister in London, who was interviewed yesterday, limited at the possibility of the secret treaty.

Shanghai sends a report that the Empress Dowager, alarmed at the situation, has ordered a detachment of Chinese troops to be sent to the frontier.

From Hankow comes a report that Gen. Tung Yu Hsien is still at the front. The Chinese Government has ordered a detachment of Chinese troops to be sent to the frontier.

It is said that Prince Ching will be sent to Germany to negotiate for the murder of Baron von Kettler.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

London, Nov. 17.—A despatch to the Herald from Yalta says: The British Government, having received information from Count Lamsdorf to the effect that the Russian troops are holding British railways in China, and the English papers have founded on this, would place this country entirely in the wrong.

BISHOP POTTER OF NEW YORK
IN A CAMPAIGN AGAINST VICE

Writes a Letter to Mayor Van Wyck Telling How Clergymen Were Insulted by Police When Seeking Protection for the Young Against the Harpies of the East Side.

New York, Nov. 16.—Bishop Henry C. Potter of the Episcopal Diocese of New York today sent a letter to Mayor Van Wyck in reference to vice in this city, and especially on the East Side.

The Bishop publicly announced that one of his clerics had been grossly insulted by the commanding officers of a certain police station, and that he proposed to take up the matter in a manner which the heads of the police force should feel.

Three Movements on Foot. At the present writing there are three movements on foot in New York City. The first is a quiet conducted investigation by District Attorney Gardner in connection with Anthony Comstock's Society for the Suppression of Vice.

The Bishop's Letter. Bishop Potter in his letter to Mayor Van Wyck, calls attention to the fact that he is being done at the pre-cathedral, 300 Stanton-street, in endeavoring to improve the conditions of the poor of the East Side.

Mr. Van Wyck Replies Promptly. Mayor Van Wyck at once replied to the Bishop's letter, in which he said he had passed the Bishop's communication to the District Attorney, and then says: "I wish here to assure you that I will exert every power which the law has given to the right of the wrong and to do away with the conditions of which you complain."

The Mayor Promises Well. Mayor Van Wyck's reply to the Bishop's letter is a most encouraging one. The Mayor promises well. Mayor Van Wyck's reply to the Bishop's letter is a most encouraging one.

A Case in Point. Bishop Potter then goes on to tell how, when two clergymen called at the police station to inquire into the matter, they were treated with contempt and insult.

Would Make a Race of Angels. The Bishop goes on to say: "I am not a Jew, but I am a Christian. I am not a Jew, but I am a Christian. I am not a Jew, but I am a Christian."

CALL FOR A CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION. Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

Hamilton Spectator. In view of the approaching Provincial election, it is highly desirable to make the Conservative party in Ontario a more effective force.

THE FEAR OF ROSEBERY
LEFT HIS FACED PLAY

Installation Address as Lord Rector of Glasgow University Was a Remarkable Deliverance on "The British Empire."

Predicts Fierce International Competition During the 20th Century—Then He Grew Retrospective and Told of What Might Have Been Had Pitt Not Accepted a Peerage.

Glasgow, Nov. 16.—The Earl of Rosebery was installed today as Lord Rector of the Glasgow University. His rectorial address on the subject of "The British Empire" was a stirring appeal to the nation to realize its responsibilities and to prepare to fight for its existence.

Predicts Fierce International Competition. The twentieth century, he declared, would be a period of keen, intelligent and almost fierce international competition.

What Might Have Been. Lord Rosebery asserted that but for the small intellect of the acceptance of a peerage, the Empire might have been in a much better position.

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."

Decidedly Fatalistic. "It is difficult to dwell for a moment on what might have happened," continued Lord Rosebery, "but I am convinced that the British Empire would have been a much greater power."