

Kate Foley, Lizzie Savage, Eva Stalker, Albert Atcheson, Chas. Atcheson, Douglas Corning and Hector Richard were present every Sabbath during the year, while Maggie Campbell, Violet Kennedy and Merrill Corning missed one Sabbath only.

Mr. Blackburn's prize for accurately reciting the Epistle to the Ephesians, was won by Ethel Harrington and Wardrope Alexander.

Rev. Mr. Farries' prizes for reciting correctly the whole of the Shorter Catechism, were taken by Connie Alexander and Mary Turner, and those for half the Shorter Catechism were won by Alice McKenzie, Emma Reynolds, Fred Hay, Nellie Kennedy and Alison Kennedy.

The following are the names of those members of the Infant Class who are recommended for Mr. Robinson's prizes:—1. For reciting the Golden Texts for twelve months: Muriel Dobier, Merrill Corning, Douglas Corning and Thompson Ashe. 2. For reciting the Golden Texts for six months: Mary Stalker, Daisy Stalker, Stella McKenzie, Mabel Martin, Willie Ashe and Jas. Ferguson. 3. For reciting the Golden Texts for three months: Ethel Peden, May McFarlane, Ethel Wardrope, Ruth Wardrope, Sidney McFarlane and Geo. Beeson.

We regret to report that Mr. Mutchmor's prize for introducing 5 new scholars has not been taken by any one, but we hope that in another year more than one may be found claiming the prize.

The Treasurer's statement shows that the total receipts are $13.44 more than those of last year, and that the Missionary Collections are larger than those of last year by $7.39.

The school has continued to support a pupil at the Pointe-aux-Trembles Institute, and on the last Sabbath of the year a collection amounting to $13.23 was taken up in aid of the Protestant Orphans' Home.

In order that our Sabbath School should do its work with greater comfort and efficiency than is possible under existing conditions, two things are necessary. The first is that the congregation should pay all the expenses of the school, so that all the contributions raised by the school itself might be devoted to benevolent and missionary purposes, and the second is that the Sabbath School should have a separate building for itself fitted up with all the equipment now deemed necessary for effective Sabbath School work. In what better way could the congregation signalize its fast approaching jubilee year than by erecting and equipping such a Sabbath School building. But wherever, and in whatever circumstances, we may be called upon to do our work, let us do it heartily as to the Lord and not unto men, not with eye service as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ doing the will of God from the heart.
