The company continues to publish alleged interviews, calculated to show that it has Ching Klang Railway by two Chinese treated the men fairly, and that the directors and the representatives of the treated the men fairly, and that the men have been causing the company great inconvenience by disregarding the rules. The company makes capital of the fact that a number of the men have laid off recently, and claims that they have done so without per-mission. A list of names is published.

In reply the employes' committee says the company's statement is false in some particulars, and misleading in all. Dealing with the list published, the committee point out that the names of Garnett, Westby, Crawford and Armstrong appear seven times. All of them are members of the employes' committee, and are off at this time in the men's interest. And all of them reported in the regular way, as provided by the old agreement. Other names published by the company are John Pickle, who is sick in bed, and who is under a doctor's care; Angus Kennedy, who is also sick; and Eli Daily, who had a nail run through his wrist, and could not take out his car; Railroad Employes Will Make a United each of whom, the men state, reported in the usual way. The committee say the company is eking to wear them out by a policy of quibbling and meaningless controversy, and to draw the attention of the public away from the real points at The company has made no reply to the men's plea for a genuine arbitration of all matters in dispute.

Speaking of the effort, an engineer said: "We think the time has come to obtain an agreement from Mr. Hays under which the engineers of the Grand Trunk Railway shall receive the same rates as are paid by the Canadian Pacific Railway. We intend to ask for an increase of the rate per 100 miles of running from $2 75 to $3, the rate paid by the Canadian Pacific Railway, and for extra rates in cases where trains are so large that we have to take them over the grades in two portions.

"The firemen want an increase proportionate to ours, and the trackmen, whose executive officers are at Montreal now to press their request for an increase, ask for the support of the engineers and firemen in their efforts. Matters in regard to the trackmen's request are reaching an acute stage. A circular which has been sent to Mr. Hays contains this sentence: committee are still in Montreal waiting your pleasure to deal with them, and will not be responsible for any trouble with the trackmen which may come of your refusal to treat with The trackmen have the two usual complaints, tong hours and small pay. ## FRIEND OF THE POOR

An Indefatigable Clergyman and a Good Citizen Was Rev. C. C. Owen.

To the new rector of the Memorial Church here the Winnipeg Tribune editorially pays the following graceful tribute:

"In the departure of Rev. C. C. Owen for London, not only does Trinity Church lose a devoted and indefatigable clergyman, but what is no less important, the city of Winnipeg loses a valuable citizen. Not only did he take a wide view of the duty of the church to the community, but he went further, and put it into practice. While other clergymen, after a hard Sunday's work, took a well-earned rest and talked social problems before a glowing grate, in an easy chair, Mr. Owen left Trinity Church to try and solve those problems in crowded meetings in old Trinity lodging house, which was not the most ideal place in the world to work in. He knew more about the poor and the outcast than any other man in Winnipeg, not excepting the city relief officer, and yet he was the most imposed on. His house was always full and could never quite make up its mind whether it was a hospital or a Gospel training school. He was only known to cheat one man, who was always busy and needed time to get up sermons. Nevertheless, though he pleaded not guilty, he stands convicted by a jury of his own townsmen (and women) that he preached good tidings unto the meek, bound up the brokenhearted, claimed liberty to the captive, and the opening of the prison to them that were bound."

Mount Brydges, May 20 .- The annual district meeting of the Strathroy district of the London conference was held in the Methodist Church on Wednesday and Thursday, of this week.

The ministerial session was held on Wednesday. Rev. Mr. Kershaw, of Ar-

In the evening a public meeting was held in the church in the interest of the Epworth League, when excellent addresses were given by Rev. W. H. McAllister, M.A., Watford, on "Personal Power," followed by Rev. Jos. Philp, B.D., of Petrolia, on "A Half-Hour with Milton." The audience, though not very large, appreciated the brethren. The choir of the church gave a number of selections. THURSDAY'S PROCEEDINGS

The laymen met at one o'clock, and elected the lay delegates to conference, after which the election of representative to the stationing committee took place, requiring quite 2 number of ballots, and finally resulting in the selection of Rev. W. G. H. Mc-Allister, of Watford, Rev. J. E. Holmes. of Mount Brydges, and Mr. Henderson, of Watford, were elected to the Sabbath school committee. It was decided to hold the financial district meeting in September at Kerwood, and the next May district meeting in Watford. After passing a vote of thanks to the people of Mount Brydges for entertaining the delegates, singing the doxology and pronouncing the benediction, the district meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the
