MANY CHANGES IN G. T. R. TIMETABLE TAKE PLACE SUNDAY

Practically Eliminate the Port Huron Route to Detroit.

On Sunday a change in timetables for losing his way in the clouds his division of the Grand Trunk Rail-Mount Blanc at an altitude of the changes have not been made known to local officials, some of them follow: Train No. 13, which leaves the city for Sarnia at 12:20 p.m., will leave at 11:43 Train N. 115, at present departing for COURT INCOMPETENT No. 7, which leaves Detroit at 12:01 a.m., central time, via Port Huron, will come to London via Windsor.
No. 7, westbound, which has been going to Detroit via Port Huron, and which leaves at 3:55 o'clock each morning will run on the Windsor line. which leaves at 3:55 o'clock each morning, will run on the Windsor line.

A new train, which is to be called No. 20, will leave Detroit at 11:45 p.m., central time, and depart from Windsor for London at 1:30 a.m.

This system of cutting the trains off the Port Huron route and running them to this city by the shorter route from Detroit, namely Windsor, was in vogue 30 years ago, and is thought to be the better one.

Head of Polish Government Appears Before Supreme Council

Paris Sept. 23 .- The status of the former Austro-Hungarian crown land of Galicia was before the supreme council for discussion this morning. Premier Paderewski of Poland was heard by the council, presenting the Polish view as to the disposition of the territory. (The claims of the Poles and Ukrainians as to Galicia are widely at variance.) Stephen Pichon, the French foreign minister, presided over the council's session.

After entering via third-story windows, and ransacking the stores of Rowland Hill, Thomas Rowe, and William Gurd & Co., thieves last night carried away 34,200 worth of goods. However, they left behind them a long grey coat, in a pocket of which was a Colt revolver fully loaded. First, Hill's was entered by a rear window, it is presumed. The beak of the building is only two stories high while the front is a floor higher. It would be an easy natter, it is eaid, to get on the rear roof and open a window was forced with the aid of a jemmy. Whether the safe was truly locked last night is questioned by the detectives, and the property of the control stated its belief that the commissioner could not approach the question of race track betting with an open mind. The letter, said Mr. Raney, had been acknowledged by the prime minister's secretary, who had promised that it would receive consideration. No further answer had been made. Mr. Raney said

NEARLY 5,000,000 BELONG TO TRADES UNIONS IN BRITAIN

London, Sept. 12.—Correspondence.—An enormous increase in the membership of British trades union is shown in a trade union congress report just issued which gives the present total membership of bodies affiliated with the congress at 4,950,000, as compared with 2,345,098 just before the war, and 4,532,000 in 1918. The most startling increase noted is the membership of the agricultural laborers' union, which was only 36,000 last year, but today is 100,000. Seventeen other unions have made increases duving the past year of Hamilton, Sept. 23.—Trouble started shortly after the opening of the morning session of the Trades and Labor Congress, now in session here, by the reading of a resolution favoring the soviet form of government, calling for the immediate withdrawal of troops from Russia, and the refusal to finance or furnish other aid to reactionary governments. The resolution was submitted by George Armstrong of Winnipez, one of the men arrested on a charge of sedition laid in connection with the war. Several votes were taken, but the convention ultimately voted against reference to the committee.

Protests A resolution bearing close relationship to that requesting elemency for defaulters was then moved by R. C. McCutcheon of Winnipeg. It demanded that the Dominion Government declare a ge-icral amnesty towards political prisoners, but not to include prisoners guilty of assisting the enemy during the war. Several votes were taken, but the convention ultimately voted against reference to the committee.

Italian foreign minister, has resigned because of the Fiume incident, accord-ing to an announcement by the Gioring to an announcement by the Giornale d'Italia.

Foreign Minister Tittoni's position in the Italian cabinet has been one of growing difficulty recently because of the Fiume developments. He is reported not to have been in entire agreement with Premier Nitti over the stand to be taken regarding the D'Annunzio coup, and as head of the Italian peace mission at Paris he has been unsuccessful so far in bringing about a solution of the Fiume question by the peace conference. The most recent plan for an adjustment which he participated in arranging, is said to have been approved by Great Britain and France, but American indorsement is understood to have been lacking, intimations from sources close to President Wilson being that there had been no change in his views long ago expressed, that Fiume should not go to Italy.

STRIKE CRIPPLES

The second day of the great struggle between the labor unions and the United States Steel Corporation opened with the question as to the extent to which the industry has been affected by the strike still uncertain, confused as it is by the conflicting claims of the leaders on either side. That the industry has been gravely crippled in the great centres of Pittsburg, Chicago, and Youngstown was certain, and early reports today recorded several gains for the strikers.

The possibility of the spread of the strike to as yet unaffected plants was more threatening today.

Rioting, which broke out at the close of the first day of the strike, was resumed at different points this morning. The known casualties so far are one man dead, three others so badly wounded that they may die, and scores more or less severely wounded. The fatality occurred in the Pittsburg district.
