CITY TIN STORE.

Mr. C. F. Harris, the proprietor of this establishment, prosecutes quite a lively business in the manufacture of sheet iron and tinware, at his new store, on Upper Queen Street. He employs the best of workmen, turns out all descriptions of plain, stamped and japanned articles, black and Russian iron stove pipe, coal hods, shovels, etc. Mr. H. is also a gas-fitter and bell-hanger of large experience; and, in this branch, as well as with his tinware and ironmongery, he will be found to give general satisfaction. Give him a call, and remember that he is to be found at his new store, Upper Queen Street, between Grafton and Kent Streets.

M. STEVENSON.

Amongst many other excellent houses in the tinware line is that of Mr. M. Stevenson, of No. 55 Queen Street. Here the purchaser will find a varied assortment of stoves, stove pipes, register grates, fancy and japanned tinware, which he sells wholesale and retail. By strict attention to the wants of his customers, moderate charges, and the superior quality of his goods, Mr. Stevenson has succeeded in building up an extensive business, with every prospect of a still greater increase. Read his advertisement on page 72.

A. C. THOMPSON & CO.

(New Glasgow, N. S.)

The hardware, stove and tinware business is well represented in New Glasgow, N. S., by the firm above named. They are wholesale manufacturers, and conduct an extensive trade throughout the Lower Provinces. As may be seen by reference to page 222, this firm makes every description of tinware, coalhods, tubular lanterns, "perfection" oil tanks and all kinds of sheet iron work, which is executed in the very best style. In addition to the manufacture of the articles before mentioned, their store, which is situated on Provost street, is well equipped with a full assortment of hardware, and here the purchaser will not fail to meet with
