

willing and zealous ; as on this much of the prosperity and effectiveness of the Order depends, morally and financially.

Resolved, 3.—That in order more fully to carry out the main object for which we are united,—viz., THE SUPPRESSION OF INTEMPERANCE, Divisions be earnestly solicited to diffuse information among the people generally, by distributing books and tracts at stated periods, particularly the tract on the Order of the Sons of Temperance, written by G. W. A. White, and published by this Grand Division, as from a perseverance in so doing, more than any other course of proceeding, may great results be anticipated, particularly if accompanied by personal solicitation ; and this Grand Division would recommend the appointment of a Tract Committee in every Division to superintend this business.

Resolved, 4.—That in view of the benefits, moral, social, and pecuniary, arising from connection with the Order, Sons of Temperance individually, (and particularly those who have families,) are solicited to sustain the Temperance Press, by becoming subscribers to papers of established reputation, in order to keep alive their own zeal in the cause, and to train up their families in Temperance principles.

Resolved 5th.—That the following Motion which was submitted to this Grand Division at its Second Quarterly Session at Quebec, in September 1852, and which passed at the First Annual Meeting at Montreal, in October 1852, be expunged from the proceedings ; the same being an infringement of the right of Subordinate Divisions to fix the period which shall elapse from the time of a Member joining, until he becomes entitled to benefits, and also an infringement of the Constitution, which provides that a Division may suspend benefits by a two-third vote :—viz. "That any Member entitled to benefits, belonging to a Subordinate Division, under the jurisdiction of the Grand Division of Canada East, withdrawing from said Division, and depositing his withdrawal card in any other Division, under the same jurisdiction, shall immediately on the reception of said card, by such Division, become entitled to benefits."

That the following Resolution, adopted by this Grand Division in May last, at St. Andrews, being obscure and calculated to mislead, be expunged, viz :

"That in the opinion of the Grand Division, all accounts referred to a Finance Committee should be immediately paid, without
