Blue Ribbon feature entitled "The Kid,"

Steel's Shoe Store will be open morrow till 11 p. m. Blue Ribbon feature entitled "The Kid," a vivid story of newspaper adventures in New York. "The Secret of The Submarine" serial—chapter No. 9—will tell how Cleo and Lieutenant Hope escaped from the terrible earthquake and of the chase through the air in aeroplanes and sensational escape by means of a parachute drop. W. H. Lytell & Co. are winding up the week just as strong as they entered upon it with their screaming domestic farce "An All-Night Session." On Saturday afternoon the programme will be enhanced in value for the children by the showing of the great hoy-story entitled "Thomas Jefferson Morgan, P. J. G." which has been loaned to the Y. M. C. A. conference here by the Curtis Publishing Co. of Philadelphia. This picture will be shown privately to the Y. M. C. A. delegates after the conference session ends at five o'clock. It will create quite a little sensation among the boys and girls.

tributions in the United States for the assistance of Belgian children. The Pope addressed an apostolic letter to the cardinal, recommending that the Catholic episcopacy, clergy and laity in America support the plan to provide a supplementary daily meal for the Belgian children, to save them from starvation and disease. The papal letter depicts the suffering of the Belgian children and urges the happy children of America to assist them. The Pope expresses regret that, owing to present conditions, he is unable to do more.
