CLIFF STREET INSTITUTE TO OPEN ON MONDAY

Improvements Made at Y. M. C. I.—Arthur Martin New Secretary
It was announced today that the Young Men's Catholic Institute, Cliff Street, would be re-opened for the 1926-27 season on next Monday, Sept. 20. A. MARTIN, SECRETARY
During the summer months the board of management arranged to have a change made at the entrance to the building leading to the auditorium upstairs and the bowling alleys downstairs. This work is now completed. The necessary decorating and painting have also been done, with the result that the entrance now presents a very bright and attractive appearance. A new office has been constructed on the ground floor, and both former and new members will be welcomed to the Institute by the new secretary, Arthur Martin, who has taken a great interest in the boys and in all branches of sport at the Y. M. C. I. during the last year. With these and several other changes the board of management looks forward to the coming season to be one of the Institute's best. Many successful activities took place during last season, and this year plans have been arranged by the committee of management to have 1926-1927 a year of keener and more varied physical, intellectual and social activities than last season. It is hoped to get the class work, bowling, basketball and other lines of sport away to an early start. All old members and those intending to join the Y. M. C. I. this year are invited to attend the first regular meeting for this season on Sunday, Sept. 26, at 4 p. m. The Institute will operate on the same time-plan this year as last year, which was most successful. The building will be open at 6:30 every night, and close at 10:30, excepting Saturdays, when it will open at 2 p. m. Special classes will be arranged for school-boys in the afternoon, and no schoolboys will be allowed in the building on school-day nights. Membership tickets must be presented to the secretary for admittance into the building. These will be available from the secretary any evening. During October a special drive for new members will be made and information regarding this will be given later.

COTTAGE IS BURNED

Summer Residence at Raynes Beach Victim of Flames Last Night
A summer cottage at Raynes Beach, jointly owned by Edward Duffy, Bridge Street, and occupied by them during the summer months, was destroyed by fire last evening. The cottage was situated on a small peninsula, and was considered one of the most attractive of the summer colony. The owners had recently moved to the city for the opening of the school. Harry Fitzgerald, caretaker of the property, paid a visit to the cottages about 9:30 o'clock last evening as usual, and at that time there was no sign of fire. The reflection of the fire could be seen from the city. The origin of the blaze is far as unknown.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the John River and forces its way through the falls, creating a "Falls" running up river. At low tide the water in the Bay becomes so much lower than that of the river, that the fall of water is backward and flows down river into the Bay. At the time when the level in the Bay and River are about equal, the falls disappear entirely, and the water at the Falls becomes smooth as the surface of a lake. To fully appreciate this wonder of the world it should be seen at all three stages. The best time to view this phenomenon is: TODAY (Daylight saving Time.) High Tide 7:36 p. m. Slack Tide 8:07 p. m. Low Tide 1:17 p. m. TOMORROW High Tide 8:14 a. m. Slack Tide 10:39 a. m. Low Tide 2:22 p. m.

When Seth seen 'em he says, says he: "Mister—them thorn-apples—that tree ain't no bilberry bush. It's a toothpick tree—see them thorns?" The town feller took the hull bunch back to the store an' bought every one of 'em a bottle of 'sody water. "The job's on me," says he, "Well, sir, after the frost has hit them thorn-apples—if you kin find 'em free from worms—let me see 'em. I'll give you my taste as a bilberry. My! How good they used to taste when I was a boy—before I took to chawin' tobacco. But my taste ain't what used to be. HIRAM.
