Student of Methodist missions for the Maritime Provinces is a patient in the General Public Hospital, his many friends will regret to learn. While in Milltown last Sunday he was taken ill but insisted on going through with his programme of three services. He returned home on Tuesday and a consultation was held by Dr. G. A. B. Addy and Dr. C. V. Pratt at which it was decided that he should go to the hospital. His friends join in wishing for his speedy recovery. Last Sunday marked the completion of Dr. Steel's forty-eighth year in the active Methodist ministry.
