SYMPATHIZE WITH FRENCH POSITION

Representatives of the Great Powers Speak in Washington.

Addresses Following Statement
by Premier Briand—
The Anglo-Jap Alliance
and Other Big Questions.

(Canadian Press.)

Washington, Nov. 22.—Following the addresses on the subject of land armaments, Secretary Hughes closed yesterday's session of the conference with a brief address in which he assured Premier Briand that France had the sympathy and support of the U. S. Mr.
Hughes said:

"We cannot go into a statement of detail now. Apparently the conference is so organized that this matter may have an appropriate place in our discussion.
We cannot foresee at the moment what practical measures may be available, but the expressions that we have heard from the representatives of the powers engaged in this conference make us confident that there will be generated that disposition which is essential to national security, the final assurance of security which arises and endures in the material can never supply, that is, the disposition of a world conscious of its mutual interests, of their dependence, and upon the fact that if they desire, most ardently and wholly desire it, peace will be enduring among our people."

He concluded by suggesting that the addresses and the subject of land armaments be referred to the committee on armament consisting of the plenipo-tentiary delegates of the five powers. The delegates manifestly assent, he adjourned the conference subject to the call of the chair.

Mr. Briand declared the old imperialistic policy of Germany still was covertly teaching the religion of war and hoping to turn to its advantage at the very door of France 7,000,000 of men trained in the use of arms, while beyond lay Bolshevik Russia with her millions stirring in under the flag of the final course no one could predict. He said it was quite certain the French government would further reduce service to one class and the republican French army would be reduced by half.
But, if there should come a suggestion for further reduction, it would be impossible, without exposing France to the most serious danger.

Mr. Balfour, for Britain, followed in sympathetic vein as did Senator Schaefer for Italy and Senator Kato for Japan.
Baron De Cartier, speaking for Belgium, said that the policy of that nation was to keep her land forces down to a level strictly consistent with the requirements of her national security. At this time, he said, Belgium could not possibly proceed to further reduction of her armament.

Mr. Balfour practically spoke for British policy of France should the civilization of Europe again be threatened.

Anglo-Jap Alliance.
The present British attitude on the question of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, British spokesmen declared, was not different from that recently expressed by Lloyd George, who said it would not be proper to say to Japan, "you stood by us during the war, but we don't need you now, so good-bye."

The British emphasized in this connection, however, that the prime minister also declared this did not mean Great Britain would continue the treaty against the interests of any nation, and certainly not against the United States, as there was no other country with which Great Britain so strong desired to act.

Neutralization of the Pacific was declared last night by Senator G. F. Petros.

Australian delegate to the Washington conference, to be the most important to be striving for as an effective means of assuring peace in the Far East.

Australia was not willing now to say to Japan: "We derived great benefit from the alliance during the war, but now that we have used you all we want to, will say good-bye." He suggested, however, a tri-partite understanding by Great Britain, Japan and the U. S.
It was announced last night by a representative of the Chinese delegation that telegrams have been received from Chinese organizations in Canada endorsing China's policy as presented to the armament conference. Other messages endorsing China's attitude have been received from United States cities and from China. The spokesman for the delegation said that the members of most of the organizations were Cantonese, and these were given as proof that the people of China, independent of party or faction, are behind the delegates.

for increased interest in the work of the by A. U. Brander, who also sang a pleas-

WHAT PAPERS SAY OF BRIAND SPEECH

Comment in London and in Paris on French Premier's Statement.

London, Nov. 22.—(Canadian Press.)—In commenting on Premier Briand's speech before the Washington conference, London morning newspapers follow the respective attitude which they have maintained toward France's policy in keeping a big army. There is one section of opinion which sees in France a militaristic, revengeful spirit, and another which is constantly distrustful of Germany and consequently regards France as justified in keeping prepared for a possible fresh attack.

The Times, always sceptical as to Germany's actual disarmament, is convinced to Rev. Mr. Vincent, on motion of Rev. A. L. Teaford. Miss M. E. Mullis was at the organ.

"With a chronic menace hanging over her, it would be criminal folly for France to relax her vigilance." Referring to Secretary Hughes' remark about safety for the institutions of liberty, it says:
"The institutions of liberty will not be safe until Germany undergoes a change of heart."

Paris, Nov. 22.—"France speaks through the mouth of Briand," is the almost universal opinion in the Paris morning papers over the account of the French premier's address at the Washington conference.

This opinion, embodying the sense of satisfaction with which the speech is hailed here, comprises almost the only element, the cables sent arriving so late as to preclude extended discussion.
The only exception to this favorable view is taken by the communis-tische (Humanite), which uses the headline "Briand Defends France's Militarism."
