HUSKY OLD GENERAL TAKES ON STIFF TASK Plans to Climb Mount Everest at Fifty five Years.

London, Dec. 30. - Brigadier-Genera Charles Grapville Bruce, who, despite his fifty-five years, has accepted the Everest, is a man of remarkable attainments. He was shot through both legs in Gallipoli, and, as he himself describes the event, "ne roued down the hill like a shot rabbit," but, being an irrepressible optimist, he recovered.

His personal strength is such that he could at one time raise and hold out at arm's length a well-grown person as he sat in a chair. Stories of his strength, his practical jokes, and of other more serious exploits, are common property throughout Northern India, where he is every where he was always been mountainments. His passion has always been mountainments. His passion has always been mountainments. His passion has always been mountainments. However, this passion has always been mountainments. However, the rough both legs that the crowds were both enon-co-operationists, denoting the absolute failure of the non-co-operationists, denoting the non-co-operationists, denoti

London, Dec. 29—It was officially stated today that the importation of disorderly elements into Calcutta on Dec. 23 to enforce the "hartal" by terrorizing shopkeepers resulted in 650 arrests for obstruction and on other charges of disorderly conduct.

Arrests in Calcutta for similar reasons during the last six weeks have totalled 8,500, according to the statement.

It was also stated that there were no signs of the "hartal" on Dec. 23 throughout the greater part of the city, and on subsequent days of the Prince of Wales' visit the crowds were both enormous and enthusiastic, denoting the absolute
