Scots defeated Hamilton's all-star team by a score of 6-0 tonight on Harvester's field. The visitors more than lived up to their reputation of being the greatest aggregation of players that ever crossed the ocean. Their combination was mystifying at times and their shooting of the deadliest kind. Hamilton played gamely in the first period, and 36 minutes of play had elapsed before Wilson scored and just at the interval the Dunfermline man again beat the Hamilton goalie.

PRISON FOR TAXI DRIVER. Gets Six Months to Three Years for Fleeing After Car Kills Man.

Fleeing After Car Kilis Man.

Frank Murray, thirty-two years old, a taxicab chauffeur of New York, was sentenced to six months to three years in the penitentiary by Judge Crain in General Sessions for violating the high-way law by failing to stop and render assistance to a victim of his auto.

Murray's car hit and killed Joseph Daly, owner of a trucking company at 746 East 138th street, on Oct. 21, 1919, when Daly stopped his motor truck at First avenue and Thirty-fifth street, to pour water in the radiator. Witnesses testified that Murray had speeded away from the accident without halting. Others who saw Daly knocked down took the cab's number and identified the chauffeur when he was captured.
